Artificial Intelligence Applications in Higher Education Helen Crompton, Diane Burke, 2024-10-31 Artificial Intelligence Applications in Higher Education offers direct examples of how artificial intelligence systems can be applied in today's higher education contexts. As the use of AI rapidly advances within colleges and universities worldwide, there is a pressing need to showcase the challenges, opportunities, and ethical considerations that are inherent in deploying these advanced computational tools. This book highlights the multifaceted roles of AI across teaching and learning, institutional administration, student data management, and beyond. Its collected case studies furnish actionable insights into enhancing academic institutions and addressing diverse learning priorities such as motivation, engagement, feedback, and achievement goals. This valuable reference for researchers, designers, administrators, teaching faculty, and graduate students across various university programs offers fresh perspectives on generative AI, adaptive learning, intelligent tutoring systems, chatbots, predictive technologies, remote learning, and more.

PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING (For 2nd Semester Students under Gauhati University) DR. RAJU SUBBA, DR. PORAG PACHANI, 2025-04-12 Marketing is an essential function of any business, bridging the gap between products and consumers. In today's dynamic business environment, understanding the principles of marketing is crucial for students aspiring to build careers in commerce and management. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 emphasizes a multidisciplinary and practical approach to learning, encouraging students to develop analytical and decision-making skills in real-world business scenarios. Keeping this in mind, Principles of Marketing has been designed to cater to the academic needs of B.Com 2nd Semester students of Gauhati University while aligning with the latest developments in marketing strategies and practices. This book provides a comprehensive yet simplified approach to the fundamental concepts of marketing, ensuring clarity and application-oriented learning. The content is structured into five well-defined units covering key aspects of marketing:

Unit I: Introduction This unit lays the foundation for marketing by exploring its nature, scope, and importance. It traces the evolution of marketing and differentiates it from selling. Additionally, it introduces the marketing mix and examines the marketing environment, discussing its various components, including economic, demographic, technological, natural, socio-cultural, and legal factors.

Unit II: Consumer Behaviour A marketer's success largely depends on understanding consumer behavior. This unit explains the nature and importance of consumer behavior, the buying decision process, and the various factors that influence consumer choices. It further explores market segmentation, targeting, and positioning (STP) and distinguishes between product differentiation and market segmentation.

Unit III: Product This unit focuses on product concepts and classifications, along with the importance of product mix, branding, packaging, and labeling. It also discusses product support services, the product life cycle, and the new product development process. The consumer adoption process is explained to provide insights into how consumers accept and use new products.

Unit IV: Pricing and Distribution Pricing is a crucial aspect of marketing strategy. This unit delves into the significance of pricing factors affecting price determination and various pricing policies and strategies It also covers distribution channels their types functions and factors affecting their selection Special attention is given to wholesaling retailing e tailing and physical distribution Unit V Promotion and Recent Developments in Marketing This unit discusses the nature and importance of promotion the communication process and the different types of promotion including advertising personal selling public relations and sales promotion It also examines the promotion mix and the factors affecting promotional decisions Additionally this unit introduces students to emerging trends in marketing such as social marketing online marketing direct marketing services marketing green marketing rural marketing and consumerism Throughout the book efforts have been made to present the concepts in a structured and student friendly manner The book includes real life examples case studies and self assessment questions to encourage critical thinking and practical application of marketing concepts This book is expected to serve as a valuable resource for students educators and aspiring marketers We hope it fosters a deeper understanding of marketing principles and equips students with the knowledge required to navigate the ever evolving marketing landscape
