Practices of Digital Humanities in India Maya Dodd, Nirmala Menon, 2024-09-06 This book represents examples of innovations in digital humanities DH efforts across India while theorizing disparate challenges and its negotiations It examines DH projects that have spanned private and public efforts institutionally sanctioned lab work and crowd sourced programmes of public significance and shows how collectively they demonstrate the potential paths of DH in India The essays in the volume highlight the two fundamental challenges for DH acts of curation of new scales and the creation of platforms that can assist in the collation and analysis of these digital archives and changes in learning behaviour They examine the transformation of the university and the opening up of new relationships between knowledge and audience in concomitant spaces of scholarship such as libraries archives and museums The volume brings to the fore citizen efforts to document record and preserve as well as create new avenues of study and forge networks of scholarship that look very different from those of traditional academia It also foregrounds the challenges of location and addresses the questions of how DH should be taught in India and how to build digital infrastructures A go to guide for DH efforts in India this book will be an essential text for courses on digital humanities library and information sciences and the future of experiential learning The Women of the Far Right Eviane Leidig,2023-09-19 On mainstream social media platforms far right women make extremism relatable They share Instagram stories about organic foods that help pregnant women propagate the pure white race and post behind the scenes selfies at antivaccination rallies These social media personalities model a feminine lifestyle at once promoting their personal brands and radicalizing their followers Amid discussions of issues like dating marriage and family life they call on women to become housewives to counteract the corrosive effects of feminism and champion the Great Replacement conspiracy theory which motivated massacres in Christchurch El Paso and Buffalo Eviane Leidig offers an in depth look into the world of far right women influencers exploring the digital lives they cultivate as they seek new recruits for white nationalism Going beyond stereotypes of the typical male white supremacist she uncovers how young attractive women are playing key roles as propagandists organizers fundraisers and entrepreneurs Leidig argues that far right women are marketing themselves as authentic and accessible in order to reach new followers and spread a hateful ideology This insidious and highly gendered strategy takes advantage of the structure of social media platforms where far right women influencers content is shared with and promoted to mainstream audiences Providing much needed expertise on gender and the far right this timely and accessible book also details online and offline approaches to countering extremism From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Eric Walberg,2013-07-31 Eric Walberg s new book From Postmodernism to Postsecularism Re emerging Islamic Civilization provides an overview of imperialism and colonialism in the Muslim world It elaborates on the third of the Great Games addressed in his earlier work Postmodern Imperialism which traced the movement of history from the colonialism of the British and other empires through the neocolonialism of the US empire to the current Great Game marked by the revival of Islam Walberg reviews the Islamic reform traditions from the 19th century on deriving from Al Afghani Qutb incorporating the Islamic critique of the West as well as the Sunni Shia mainstream Sufi Salafi divisions Then he addresses the twentieth century experience of Islamic states Saudi Arabia Pakistan Afghanistan Iran as well as the current dynamics of the Muslim world Saudi Iran Qatar Turkey and now Egypt Tunisia Libya Key actors and milestones in the struggle to free the Muslim world from the imperial yoke are discussed While the Christian Judaic surrender to capitalism led to Marxist secularism and the communist utopia Walberg views the Islamic project as containing an alternative socio economic orientation This prevented the rise of capitalism imperialism in lands populated by Muslims making them the losers in the technology race of the 19th 20th centuries but the repository of a corrected vision of the rich lost values of the earlier monotheistic traditions Here modernity and postmodernism are critiqued from both left and right and Islam is discussed as both an alternative worldview and world order However the contradictions of the Arab Spring may be resolved as the West continues its decline Walberg projects how the understandings entrenched in Islamic civilization point toward a new old civilizational alternative one not derivative from the West but indigenous to the developing world still under its heel
