INTRODUCTION There comes a time when the elastic snaps When you push yourself to breaking point and everything crashes down My breaking point came on a gloomy Monday morning commute in 2015 Sitting in my car waiting for the lights to change I looked at two guys in their cars on either side of me They looked as miserable as I felt At that moment I burst into tears What the fuck was I doing with my life I was unhappy in my personal life and hated my job I couldn't see a way out I was too invested in my career too old to start again Looking back I didn't know jack shit about building a fitness business Corporate marketing is one thing Doing everything from scratch alone in a different industry is another I didn't have a creative agency or a multimillion pound budget All I had was a Personal Trainer certificate and the ironparadisefitness.com domain name Nevertheless I started building my online empire Or as I now refer to it pissing in the wind for two years I would write lousy articles post selfies and wonder why clients weren't beating down my virtual door Desperate to carve a way out of corporate life I vowed not to quit My business was my obsession Going out meeting friends and taking a break were a rarity I thought it was the only way to be successful I became a hermit A recluse Like the creepy guy kids fear in horror movies That's Old Man Mitchell from No 29 He never leaves the house Some say he only goes outside to dispose of the dead bodies I wasn't that bad but my social life went on ice I studied nutrition and learned the intricacies of exercise mechanics I read books and invested in courses on social media copywriting and web design Iron Paradise Fitness had consumed my entire life and I loved it It was the fire in my belly I'd been missing The passion I needed Although it did make for awkward conversations on Tinder dates What do you like to do in your spare time The innocent question would come Well I'm building my own business right now so that's my main focus Ah cool But what do you like to do for fun Work on my business Yeah but what about when you're not doing that I'm either working on my business thinking about working on my business or eating Oh

Stawicki,2025-10-01

Dating back to ancient civilizations around the world medical education has become the foundation for the sustainable transmission of knowledge and skills required to heal the sick treat the injured and promote overall well being During the past two centuries medical education has seen significant growth This rapid growth corresponded to our evolving understanding of and the ability to treat various acute and chronic medical and surgical conditions Beginning in the second half of the 20th century the pace of medical progress and unprecedented aggregation of new knowledge resulted in the amalgamation of various academic medical pursuits into what we know today as academic medicine a unique blend of education leadership research and clinical excellence Academic medicine is a noble pursuit and one of the essential constructs that have enabled innovation and new discoveries making modern medical care more effective than ever before Academic medicine also serves not only to generate new knowledge but also to sustain our civilizational progress by preserving existing knowledge skills and traditions accumulated over the millennia of the collective global history of medicine The next decade promises to be a time of great transition and opportunity for academic medicine There are many areas of great opportunity but there are also areas of deep concern It is the responsibility of medical academicians across all medical and surgical specialties to ensure that the next generations of physicians are provided with a solid foundation for professional growth and development spanning from state of the art medical education to cutting edge leadership development opportunities No matter the challenge an unwavering commitment to the principles of ethical and human centric frameworks must be maintained regardless of any other factors and considerations
