Tom Vander Ark Getting Smart

Parents and Marginalized Students Gerard Giordano, 2023-09-26 Parents worried that their children would be marginalized by their peers at school They gave examples in which they were singled out because of their gender race ethnicity sexual orientation language religion or disabilities They identified others who were picked out because of their family's income immigration status association with the armed services or attitudes towards medical issues The parents were assured that changes were in the works to protect marginalized students They reviewed changes to curricula instruction textbooks disciplinary strategies counseling techniques tests school sponsored events school terminology athletic competitions restroom policies dress codes disability policies and extracurricular activities Many parents had confidence in these changes However some were skeptical The two groups argued with each other at local schoolboard meetings They escalated their arguments after attracting the attention of journalists scholars and elected officials The Dare to be
