Creativity for Teachers Claire Badger, Jonathan Firth, 2025-03-24 Creativity is a word that is widely used in education but in ways that are not always consistent or in line with research This exciting new book explores how creativity is not something additional but which is infused throughout learning relevant to every subject and student Taking a cognitive science approach it presents creativity in terms of building competencies It challenges the view that schools kill creativity or that only some types of tasks count as creative By setting up existing lessons in ways that involve more flexibility and uncertainty we can both boost creativity and build a more flexible academic expertise along the way Featuring practical classroom examples research evidence and case studies which will guide practitioners and provide a timely antidote to stale skills vs knowledge arguments the chapters include Cognitive science and creativity Creativity across subject disciplines Linking creativity and knowledge Freedom vs constraints Expertise and metacognition Assessing creativity Motivation and school culture Creative teachers and creative teaching Part of The InnerDrive Teacher CPD Academy series that offers a deep dive into the key areas that matter to teachers this is essential reading for all teachers and school leaders wanting to develop their understanding of what creativity looks like in the classroom so they can better support their students

Interactive Storytelling Ido A Iurgel, Nelson Zagalo, Paolo Petta, 2009-11-24 The rich programme of ICIDS 2009 comprising invited talks technical presentations and posters demonstrations and co located post conference workshops clearly underscores the event's status as premier international meeting in the domain. It thereby confirms the decision taken by the Constituting Committee of the conference series to take the step forward out of the national cocoons of its precursors ICVS and TIDSE and towards an itinerant platform reflecting its global constituency. This move reflects the desire and the will to take on the challenge to stay on the lookout critically reflect upon and integrate views and ideas, findings and experiences and to promote interdisciplinary exchange while ensuring overall coherence and maintaining a sense of direction. This is a significant enterprise. The challenges sought are multifarious and must be addressed consistently at all levels. The desire to involve all research communities and stakeholders must be matched by acknowledging the differences in established practises and by providing suitable means of guidance and introduction, exposition and direct interaction at the event itself and of lasting and increasingly living documentation of which the present proceedings are but an important part.
