Confucianism and Family Rituals in Imperial China Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 2014-07-14 To explore the historical connections between Confucianism and Chinese society this book examines the social and cultural processes through which Confucian texts on family rituals were written circulated interpreted and used as guides to action Weddings funerals and ancestral rites were central features of Chinese culture they gave drama to transitions in people s lives and conveyed conceptions of the hierarchy of society and the interdependency of the living and the dead Patricia Ebrey s social history of Confucian texts shows much about how Chinese culture was created in a social setting through the participation of people at all social levels Books like Chu Hsi s Family Rituals and its dozens of revisions were important in forming ritual behavior in China because of the general respect for literature the early spread of printing and the absence of an ecclesiastic establishment authorized to rule on the acceptability of variations in ritual behavior Ebrey shows how more and more of what people commonly did was approved in the liturgies and thus brought into the realm labeled Confucian Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Poetics of

Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger,2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell s Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell s novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell s novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author s strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines
