WESTLAKE, 2018 Chapters on the Principles of International Law (Classic Reprint) John Westlake, 2015-08-04

Excerpt from Chapters on the Principles of International Law This book is not a detailed treatise on international law but an attempt to stimulate and assist reflection on its principles It is primarily intended in part performance of a professor's duty to his university though not without hope that it may be of use to others as well International law being the science of what a state and its subjects ought to do or may do with reference to other states and their subjects everyone should reflect on its principles who in however limited a sphere of influence helps to determine the action of his country by swelling the volume of its opinion Indeed to prepare men for the duties of citizenship is the chief justification for introducing into education a subject which on account of its inevitable defect in precision is less suited as a training for the mind than as an exercise for the trained mind Again international law is not a highly technical subject and it would be a mistake to aim at giving it more technicality by the mode of treating it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Chapters on the Principles of International Law

the exponent of the realist standpoint in international thought and practice The relation of Hobbes to international law is explained through attention to the place that he occupies among the modern secular natural law thinkers such as Grotius Pufendorf Wolff and Vattel who founded the modern system of the law of nations Chapters on the principles of international law, 1894 Jurisdiction in International Law Cedric Ryngaert, 2008-10-02 Introduction Public international law approaches to jurisdiction The territoriality principle The principles of extraterritorial criminal jurisdiction A reasonable exercise of jurisdiction A new theory of jurisdiction in international law International Law--the Conduct of Armed Conflict and Air Operations United States.
