The Hyde School Way and Why It Works

"This revolutionary book on education is about doing it differently—about real community and civility in teaching; about teaching through relationship rather than rote, authenticity rather than role, agonizing discernment rather than formulas, and ultimately about essence rather than superficiality."

Character First Joseph W. Gauld,1995-11-22 Many values are sadly missing from today s schools Joe Gauld knew this too well as a teacher coach and administrator He saw a system preoccupied with students ability and academic achievement and blind to their character Gauld decided to do something about it and he started his own school Character First isn t a book filled with detached educational theory Instead the author s recollections and the personal accounts of students parents and teachers clearly show what creates the Hyde School difference These stories tell of struggles with drugs and alcohol cheating and peer pressure and the role the Hyde School and Gauld himself have played in helping young people deal with and overcome their problems
