The North American Journals of Prince Maximilian of Wied Prince Alexander Philipp Maximilian of Wied, 2014-04-09 Few historical chronicles are as informative and eloquent as the journal written by Prince Maximilian of Wied as a record of his journey into the North American interior in 1833 following the route Lewis and Clark had taken almost thirty years earlier Maximilian s memorable descriptions of topography Native peoples and natural history were further brought to life through the now familiar watercolors and sketches of Karl Bodmer the young Swiss artist who accompanied him The first of the three volumes of the North American Journals recounts the prince s journey from Europe to St Louis then the edge of the frontier Volume II vividly narrates his experiences on the upper Missouri and offers an unparalleled view of the region and the peoples native to it In these pages we accompany Maximilian as he travels far up the Missouri River to Fort McKenzie a trading post some 2 500 river miles from St Louis near what is now Fort Benton Montana The handsome oversize volume not only reproduces this historic document but also features every one of Maximilian s illustrations more than 200 in all including nearly 50 in color from the original journal now housed at Joslyn Art Museum in Omaha Nebraska Maximilian recorded detailed observations of flora fauna geology and climate From his unique scientifically trained perspective he also undertook a serious field study of the cultures and languages of the central and northern Great Plains Indians he encountered His journal contains important firsthand descriptions of tribal social customs religious rituals material culture and art as well as an account of Native interactions with Euro Americans engaged in the then burgeoning fur trade This book is published with the assistance of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission The Destruction of the Bison Andrew C. Isenberg, 2000 This study first published in 2000 examines the cultural and ecological causes of the near extinction of the bison Encounters at the Heart of the World Elizabeth A. Fenn, 2014-03-11 This Pulitzer Prize winning work pieces together the lost history of the Mandan Native Americans and their thriving society on the Upper Missouri River The Mandan people's bustling towns in present day North Dakota were at the center of the North American universe for centuries Yet their history has been nearly forgotten maintained in fragmentary documents and the journals of white visitors such as Lewis and Clark In this extraordinary book Elizabeth A Fenn pieces together those fragments along with important new discoveries in archaeology anthropology geology climatology epidemiology and nutritional science The result is a bold new perspective on early American history a new interpretation of the American past By 1500 more than twelve thousand Mandans were established on the northern Plains and their commercial prowess agricultural skills and reputation for hospitality became famous Recent archaeological discoveries show how they thrived and how they collapsed The damage wrought by imported diseases like smallpox and the havoc caused by the arrival of horses and steamboats were tragic for the Mandans yet as Fenn makes clear their sense of themselves as a people with distinctive traditions endured Contested Spaces of Early America Juliana Barr, Edward Countryman, 2014-03-07 Colonial America stretched from Quebec to Buenos Aires and from the Atlantic littoral to the Pacific coast Although European settlers laid claim to territories they called New Spain New England and New France the reality of living in those spaces had little to do with European kingdoms Instead the New World's holdings took their form and shape from the Indian territories they inhabited These contested spaces throughout the western hemisphere were not unclaimed lands waiting to be conquered and populated but a single vast space occupied by native communities and defined by the meeting mingling and clashing of peoples creating societies unlike any that the world had seen before Contested Spaces of Early America brings together some of the most distinguished historians in the field to view colonial America on the largest possible scale Lavishly illustrated with maps Native art and color plates the twelve chapters span the southern reaches of New Spain through Mexico and Navajo Country to the Dakotas and Upper Canada and the early Indian civilizations to the ruins of the nineteenth century West At the heart of this volume is a search for a human geography of colonial relations Contested Spaces of Early America aims to rid the historical landscape of imperial cores frontier peripheries and modern national borders to redefine the way scholars imagine colonial America Contributors Matthew Babcock Ned Blackhawk Chantal Cramaussel Brian DeLay Elizabeth Fenn Allan Greer Pekka Hämäläinen Raï Jos Mandrini Cynthia Radding Birgit Brander Rasmussen Alan Taylor and Samuel Truett Karl Bodmer's America Revisited , 2013-07-05 Less than thirty years after Lewis and Clark completed their epic journey Prince Maximilian of Wied a German naturalist and his entourage set off on their own daring expedition across North America Accompanying the prince on this 1832-34 voyage was Swiss artist Karl Bodmer whose drawings and watercolors designed to illustrate Maximilian's journals now rank among the great treasures of nineteenth century American art This lavishly illustrated book juxtaposes Bodmer's landscape images with modern day photographs of the same views allowing readers to see what has changed and what seems unchanged since the time Maximilian and Bodmer made their storied trip up the Missouri River To discover how the areas Bodmer depicted have changed over time photographer Robert M Lindholm and anthropologist W Raymond Wood made several trips over a period of years from 1985 to 2002 to locate and record the same sites all the way from Boston Harbor where Maximilian and Bodmer began their journey to Fort McKenzie in modern day western Montana Pairing sixty seven Bodmer works side by side with Lindholm's photographs of the same sites this volume uses the comparison of old and new images to reveal alterations through time and the encroachment of a built environment across diverse landscapes Karl Bodmer's America Revisited is at once a tribute to the artistic achievements of a premier landscape artist and a photographer who followed in his footsteps and a valuable record of America's ever changing environment Feast Or Famine Reginald Horsman, 2008

Drawing on the journals and correspondence of pioneers Horsman examines more than a hundred years of history recording components of the diets of various groups including travelers settlers fur traders soldiers and miners He discusses food preparation techniques including the development of canning and foods common in different regions Provided by publisher
