African Identities and World Christianity in the Twentieth Century Klaus Koschorke,Jens Holger Schjørring,2005 The map of global Christianity continues to undergo dramatic changes and on this map Africa comes to the fore The proceedings of the Third International Conference at Munich Freising on the History of Christianity in the Non Western World seek to respond to the growing importance of Africa in the context of World Christianity Prominent scholars from Africa and Europe deal with the manifold manifestations of African Christianity in the 20th century and the various ways in which African and Christian identities were formulated and interacted with each other The negotiation of the local and the global in the process of forming African churches is discussed as is the question of the impact of internal African debates and developments on global ecumenical discussions From the table of contents 16 contributions O U Kalu A Trail of Ferment in African Christianity Ethiopianism Prophetism Pentecostalism K Ward African identities in the historic Mainline Churches A case study of the negotiation of local and global within African Anglicanism A Anderson African Independent Churches and Global Pentecostalism Historical Connections and Common Identities E Kamphausen African Cry Anmerkungen zur Entstehungsgeschichte einer kontextuellen Befreiungstheologie in Afrika A Adamavi Aho Ekue Troubled but not destroyed The development of African Theologies and the paradigm of the Theology of reconstruction K Hock Appropriated Vibrancy Immediacy as a Formative Element in African Theologies

Orthodox Anglican Identity Charles Erlandson, 2020-04-28 While the postmodern world we inhabit is highly fragmented contested and conflicted we all have one thing in common we are experiencing identity crises Religious traditions are not immune to these crises and orthodox Anglicans have been experiencing their own issues with identity since the 2003 consecration of an openly homosexual man Orthodox Anglicans want to say who they are as both orthodox and Anglican but they are also finding it difficult to articulate a clear and coherent identity especially an Anglican one This orthodox Anglican pursuit of a renewed sense of self in a complex and fragmented world is a microcosm of our postmodern context and an examination of their quest holds enticing clues to our own urgent searches for meaning and identity Think of this book as a kind of story the story of a worldwide church who when its identity was threatened took counsel together to renew and revitalize its sense of self In the process it not only faced many dangers and difficulties but also learned much about who it was and who it wanted to be

The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo, 2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit's presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha

Charismatic Authority in Early Modern English Tragedy Raphael Falco, 2000 Tragedies often focus on this difficult process of charismatic transformation a process Falco argues that is best understood not in terms of a single tragic figure but as a group experience

The contributions of Woodiwiss Lister and Sassen are outstanding but not unrepresentative of the many merits of this excellent collection

The British Journal of Sociology From women s rights civil rights and sexual rights for gays and lesbians to disability rights and language rights we have experienced in the past few decades a major trend in Western nation states towards new claims for inclusion This trend has echoed around the world from the Zapatistas to Chechen and Kurdish nationalists social and political movements are framing their struggles in the languages of rights and recognition and hence of citizenship Citizenship has thus become an increasingly important axis in the social sciences Social scientists have been rethinking the role of political agent or subject Not only are the rights and obligations of citizens being redefined but also what it means to be a citizen has become an issue of central concern As the process of globalization produces multiple diasporas we can expect increasingly complex relationships between homeland and host societies that will make the traditional idea of national citizenship problematic As societies are forced to manage cultural difference and associated tensions and conflict there will be changes in the processes by which states allocate citizenship and a differentiation of the category of citizen This book constitutes the most authoritative and comprehensive guide to the terrain Drawing on a wealth of interdisciplinary knowledge and including some of the leading commentators of the day it is an essential guide to understanding modern citizenship

Afeosemime Unuose Adogame, 2011 Pentecostal charismatic movements present one of the most popular fastest growing
