Charitable Appeals Fact How Blacks And Whites Respond To Different Types Of Fundraising Efforts:

Jet, 1989-12-11 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Racism in Contemporary America Meyer Weinberg, 1996-05-23 Racism in Contemporary America is the largest and most up to date bibliography available on current research on the topic It has been compiled by award winning researcher Meyer Weinberg who has spent many years writing and researching contemporary and historical aspects of racism Almost 15 000 entries to books articles dissertations and other materials are organized under 87 subject headings In addition there are author and ethnic racial indexes Several aids help the researcher access the materials included In addition to the subject organization of the bibliography entries are annotated whenever the title is not self explanatory An author index is followed by an ethnic racial index which makes it convenient to follow a single group through any or all the subject headings This is a source book for the serious study of America s most enduring problem as such it will be of value to students and researchers at all levels and in most disciplines Jet, 1989-12-11 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news The Charitable Appeals Fact Book Emmett Devon Carson, 1989 This book makes available for the first time comparable detailed socioeconomic breakdowns of the monetary donations made by blacks as well as whites Its 55 tables identify the average dollar amounts donated to various types of charitable organizations and the methods of fundraising to which donors considered themselves most responsive Based on national polls commissioned by the Joint Center for Political Studies and on reviews of selected charitable organizations in eight cities Dr Carson s findings suggest that although the overall frequency of giving is identical for blacks and whites blacks are much more responsive than whites to charitable appeals made or endorsed by members of the clergy suggesting a venue many fundraisers may need to take more seriously if they are to reach black donors Race, Gender, and Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Marybeth Gasman, N. Drezner, E. Epstein, T. Freeman, V. Avery, 2011-11-15 This volume centers on the lives and experiences of female and African American leaders of foundations and nonprofits Contributors to the volume examine race and gender as constructs and provide a theoretical background for understanding their effect on the psycho social development of the individuals Uplifting a People Marybeth Gasman, Katherine V. Sedgwick, 2005 Philanthropy is typically considered to be within the province of billionaires This book broadens that perspective by highlighting modest acts of giving by African Americans on behalf of their own people Examining the important tradition of Black philanthropy this groundbreaking work documents its history its beginning as a response to discrimination through self help among freed slaves and its expansion to include the support of education religion the arts and legal efforts on behalf of civil rights Using diverse approaches the authors illuminate a new world of philanthropy one that will be of interest to scholars and students alike Chapters review the contributions of such major figures as Booker T Washington and Thurgood Marshall and discuss the often surprising practices and methods of contemporary African American donors Fundraising and Institutional Advancement Noah D. Drezner, Frances

Huehls,2014-09-04 In this timely textbook authors Drezner and Huehls take the interdisciplinary complex nature of the study of philanthropy and fundraising and apply it to the field of higher education Covering issues of increasing importance to institutions including donor cultivation growth of fundraising at community colleges and minority institutions engagement of young alumni volunteerism and the competing roles of stakeholders this book helps readers apply theory to the practice of advancement in post secondary education Special Features Coverage of historical and theoretical underpinnings and insights from related literature and research Discussion of new donor populations including women communities of color the LGBTQ population students and young alumni On the ground case studies bring theories into focus by creating a bridge to experience and action Practical implications for the design of fundraising campaigns and strategies Guiding questions that encourage students to think beyond the current literature and practice This textbook bridges research theory and practice to help higher education administrators and institutions effectively negotiate the fundraising terrain and advance their institution

The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil,Michael Reisch,2005 Encompassing community development organizing planning and social change as well as globalisation this book is grounded in participatory and empowerment practice The 36 chapters assess practice theory and research methods Black Greek-Letter Organizations in the 21st Century Gregory S. Parks,2008-06-13 A masterpiece of multidisciplinary scholarship that clearly demonstrates the contemporary relevance of black fraternities and sororities Hasan Kwame Jeffries author of Bloody Lowndes During the twentieth century black Greek Letter organizations BGLOs united college students dedicated to excellence fostered kinship and uplifted African Americans Members of these organizations include remarkable and influential individuals such as Martin Luther King Jr Congresswoman Barbara Jordan novelist Toni Morrison and Wall Street pioneer Reginald F Lewis Despite the profound influence of these groups many now question the continuing relevance of BGLOs arguing that their golden age has passed To foster a greater engagement with the history and contributions of BGLOs Black Greek Letter Organizations in the Twenty first Century brings together an impressive group of authors to explore the contributions and continuing possibilities of BGLOs and their members Editor Gregory S Parks and the contributing authors provide historical context for the development of BGLOs exploring their service activities as well as their relationships with other prominent African American institutions Both internally and externally BGLOs struggle to forge a relevant identity for the new century Internally these groups wrestle with many issues including hazing homophobia petty intergroup competition and the difficulty of bridging the divide between college and alumni members Externally BGLOs face the challenge of rededicating themselves to their communities and leading an aggressive campaign against modern forms of racism sexism and other types of fear driven behavior By embracing the history of these organizations and exploring their continuing viability and relevance Black Greek Letter Organizations in the Twenty first Century demonstrates that BGLOs can create a positive and enduring future and that their most important work lies ahead

Minorities and Privatization Robert E. Suggs,1989-12-18 This timely and important study identifies the effects of municipal privatization on blacks and Hispanics The author examines three fundamental issues how privatization affects minority employment in municipal government how it affects minority employment in the resulting private sector positions and how it affects city contracting among minority owned businesses
