Charles Reade A Study In Victorian Authorship:

Charles Reade Wayne Burns,1961 Charles Reade Wayne Burns,Charles Reade,2012-03 Charles Reade Wayne Burns,1961 Victorian Narratives of the Recent Past Helen Kingstone,2017-03-30 This book explains why narrating the recent past is always challenging and shows how it was particularly fraught in the nineteenth century The legacy of Romantic historicism the professionalization of the historical discipline and even the growth of social history all heightened the stakes This book brings together Victorian histories and novels to show how these parallel genres responded to the challenges of contemporary history writing in divergent ways Many historians shrank from engaging with controversial recent events This study showcases the work of those rare historians who defied convention including the polymath Harriet Martineau English nationalist J R Green and liberal enthusiast Spencer Walpole A striking number of popular Victorian novels are retrospective This book argues that Charlotte Bront Elizabeth Gaskell and George Eliot s novels of the recent past are long overdue recognition as genuinely historical novels By focusing on provincial communities these novelists reveal undercurrents invisible to national narratives and intervene in debates about women s contribution to history Adaptions of Western Literature in Meiji Japan J. Miller,2001-12-06 This book examines three examples of late nineteenth century Japanese adaptations of Western literature a biography of U S Grant recasting him as a Japanese warrior a Victorian novel reset as oral performance and an American melodrama redone as a serialized novel promoting the reform of Japanese theater Written from a comparative perspective it argues that adaptation hon an was a valid form of contemporary Japanese translation that fostered creative appropriation across many genres and among a diverse group of writers and artists In addition it invites readers to reconsider adaptation in the context of translation theory A Literary History of England Vol. 4 A Baugh,2004-06-02 First published in 1959 The scope of this four volume work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another an placing each author clearly in the setting of his time This is the fourth volume and includes the Nineteenth Century and after 1789 1939 A Companion to Sensation Fiction Pamela K. Gilbert,2011-06-20 This comprehensive collection offers a complete introduction to one of the most popular literary forms of the Victorian period its key authors and works its major themes and its lasting legacy Places key authors and novels in their cultural and historical context Includes studies of major topics such as race gender melodrama theatre poetry realism in fiction and connections to other art forms Contributions from top international scholars approach an important literary genre from a range of perspectives Offers both a pre and post history of the genre to situate it in the larger tradition of Victorian publishing and literature Incorporates coverage of traditional research and cutting edge contemporary scholarship Fallen Women in the Nineteenth-Century Novel T. Winnifrith,1993-11-08 Tom Winnifrith examines how the great nineteenth century novelists managed to say something new and important about sexual behaviour in spite of rules which dictated that the recording of this behaviour should combine the utmost discretion and deep disapproval On the surface their fallen heroines

seem to suffer the conventional cruel fate of the erring female death or Australia or both Tom Winnifrith examines ways in which the great novelists continued to portray the complexities underlying the simple division of women into angels and whores

The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, 2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature

The Fallen Angel Sally Mitchell, 1981 Discusses the figure of the unchaste woman in a wide range of fiction written between 1835 and 1880 including serious novels by Dickens Mrs Gaskell and George Eliot popular novels that provided light reading for middle class women sensational fiction propaganda for social reform and stories in cheap periodicals which reached a different and far wider audience than either serious or popular novels During these years some women were struggling to become women instead of the angels of purity that sentimental morality had made of them The sexual woman the whore the mistress the runaway wife the seduced or fallen innocent all attracted a cluster of ideas about the differences between women and men about the power structure in sexual relationships and about women's place in the social and moral world In considering these topics this book traces women and illuminates differences in the fiction writer for different social classes Publisher description

Urban Disorder and the Shape of Belief Carl Smith, 2007-11-15 The Great Chicago Fire of 1871 the Haymarket bombing of 1886 and the making and unmaking of the model town of Pullman these remarkable events in what many considered the quintessential American city forced people across the country to confront the disorder that seemed inevitably to accompany urban growth and social change In Urban Disorder and the Shape of Belief Carl Smith explores the imaginative dimensions of these events as he traces the evolution of interconnected beliefs and actions that increasingly linked city disorder and social reality in the minds of Americans Examining a remarkable range of writings and illustrations as well as protests public gatherings trials hearings and urban reform and construction efforts Smith argues that these three events and the public awareness of them not only informed one another but collectively shaped how Americans understood and continue to understand Chicago and modern urban life This classic of urban cultural history is updated with a foreword by the author that expands our understanding of urban disorder to encompass such recent examples as Hurricane Katrina the Oklahoma City Bombing and 9 11 Cultural history at its finest By utilizing questions and methodologies of urban studies social history and literary history Smith creates a sophisticated account of changing visions of urban America Robin F Bachin

Community of One Martin A. Danahay, 1993-01-01 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self referential community of one
