Charlie And The Fightin Mule:

Charlie and the Fightin' Mule CREATESPACE, Donald Underwood Thompson, 2001-09-21 Charlie and the Fightin Mule Plus More Down Home Stories is a lively collection of tales set in the fertile farm country and tobacco towns of eastern North Carolina. Stories of farmers working folks country teenagers rascals mules tent preachers and pink 1956 Ford convertibles. For days after you've read the book the stories and the characters who people them drift into your mind with the subtleness of a twilight breeze stirring the tops of knee high corn and like a whiff of your mama's cooking transport you down home.

Luther's Women Hughlett L. Morris, 2005-05 In Luther's War the old man Luther recounts his boyhood years and his years as a Confederate Soldier. In 1864 at age 18 mortally sick with the fevers he decided to quit the War. He vows that if he doesn't go in to die it'll be on my way home. Home was several hundred miles away. Now he tells his stories about the journey and his return on Ole Mule and the black stallion Thunder to his home in Stewart County Tennessee. He recollects places and people along the way. Mainly he recollects the women he met. Some he loved. All had something to teach him about himself and how to be a man. Back at home he starts his new life encountering his mother Harriet Nadine who didn't wait for his return and his true love Narcissa whom he marries at age 21 in 1867. Luther's Women is the sequel to Luther's War. Xlibris Philadelphia 2005. Dr. Morris is Professor Emeritus at the University of Iowa. His previous published works are professional and scientific. This is his first work of fiction. He is a native of Stewart County Tennessee and lives now in Tucson. Yet Another Fallen Star JoAnn L. Hill, 2012-05 In 1874 tiny Emily makes her appearance in the world. She is the foundation of the Roberts family and often times the bread winner. Her life is lengthy and she uses it wisely, not necessarily the path her family will follow. Emily is an exceptional listener and a friend to everyone. Yet Another Fallen Star spans 135 years telling the story of Emily, her children, her grandchildren, and their extended family. Against a backdrop of rapid social change, we see their strengths and weaknesses, challenges and choices with serious and humorous consequences. Keep Your Fingers in the Dirt Dorothy Bowen, 2009-03 Keep Your Fingers in the Dirt Lessons in Simple Living from the Oklahoma Hills. Keep Your Fingers in the Dirt is the story of the people who taught two city-raised newlyweds the lessons they needed to know to live well in the country. Some lessons were practical, including felling trees for firewood or butchering a chicken for supper. Some were philosophical, involving respect for a laborer's dignity or the proper attitude to take towards strangers in need. All were important lessons in simple living. Those people are all gone now, but their lessons live on. Dorothy Bowen lives with her husband Glenn in Northeastern Oklahoma. She and Glenn still raise a large garden, raise chickens for the freezer, and cut firewood to heat their home. They attend a nondenominational Sabbatarian Charismatic fellowship in Natural Dam, Arkansas. Readers may write to her in care of the fellowship at Good News Fellowship, PO Box 1, Natural Dam, AR 72948.
