consumers to spend their money on Consumers are literally spoilt for choice the world is full of product There is however a downside Most of the stuff you can buy is as Gerald Ratner once famously said complete crap In their attempt to feed consumers fast companies have replaced innovation and fresh ideas with brand extensions franchises and re makes No wonder 85% of new products launched fail in the first year This book takes a witty cynical look at modern consumerism and how we ended up with a world full of useless things

Jesus in an Age of Terror James G. Crossley, 2008 This book applies the work of Noam Chomsky Edward Herman Edward Said and several others on international politics and the supportive role of the media intellectuals and academics to contemporary Christian origins and New Testament scholarship Part One looks at the ways in which New Testament and Christian origins scholarship has historically been influenced by its political and social settings over the past hundred years or so Moving on to the present the following chapter then applies Herman and Chomskys propaganda model of manufacturing consent in the mass media to the recent explosion of biblical scholars writing on the internet in particularly biblio bloggers It is clear that political views in biblio blogging conform strikingly to the emphases that come through in Herman and Chomskys analysis of the mass media and intellectuals particularly with the standard lines on the war on terror and views on the contemporary Middle East The rest of the book takes up modified key areas of the propaganda model in more detail Part Two looks at the Orientalist rhetoric of clashing civilisations and how this relates to the war on terror and the creation of Islam Arabs Middle East etc as the Great Enemy in the media and relevant intellectual thought since the 1970s and to use Derek Gregorys phrase hideously emboldened in the war on terror The next chapter then shows how this context has had a highly noticeable impact on the use of social sciences in New Testament and Christian origins scholarship in particular the stark generalisations of scholars using cultural social anthropology based on contemporary studies of the Middle East Disturbingly some of this scholarship has many rhetorical links with Anglo American foreign policy interests in the Middle East and beyond making some politically charged statements that cohere closely with recent intellectual defences of actions in Iraq Palestine and beyond Part Three looks at issues of Palestine and Israel in the media alongside Christian secular and relevant intellectual thought since the Six Day War of 1967 focusing in particular on the dramatic shift towards widespread support for Israel This also includes an analysis of the recent and controversial case of Nadia Abu el Hajs tenure at Barnard The following chapter shows how this interest in Israel has had a profound impact on historical Jesus and Christian origins studies particularly the strange emphasis on Jewishness and misplaced allegations of antisemitism since the 1970s Despite the shift in support of Israel this is rarely done for love of Jews Judaism Israel or Israelis because there remains a notable cultural political and religious superiority in Anglo American scholarship While owing much also to an Orientalist tradition this too is strongly echoed in scholarship of Christian origins where for all the emphasis on the Jewishness of Jesus and the first Christians it is extremely common to find Jesus or the first Christians being better than Judaism or overriding key symbols of Judaism as constructed by scholarship done ironically by frequent ignoring of relevant Jewish texts The end results of contemporary scholarship are not dramatically different from the results of the anti Jewish and antisemitic scholarship of much of the twentieth century My Bad Arleen Sorkin,Paul Slansky,2007-12-26 Updated to include new apologies A densely packed grab bag an invaluable history lesson reassuring in its lest we forgetness riveting in its revelations Entertainment Weekly With an additional 200 mind boggling miscues and mealy mouthed mea culpas My Bad celebrates the best of this year s most exquisitely squirm inducing pleas for forgiveness from a variety of famous flubbers Donald Rumsfield to Don Imus Mel Gibson to Michael Richards that proves public apologies are as American as pleading the Fifth A Day in the Life Keith Topping,2003 A Day in the Life is your companion to twenty four hours in the life of Jack Bauer as detailed in the TV series 24 An everyman yet superman flawed hero facing insurmountable odds and determined and well resourced foes Someone with only his wits his integrity and his abilities as a one man killing machine to keep him going 24 is extraordinary dangerous high octane sexy television It s Die Hard meets James Bond meets JFK In this unauthorised guide to the series best selling author Keith Topping analyses all twenty four episodes highlighting the characters the plot twists the influences the great moments and providing a commentary on this particular day in the life of Jack Bauer Prospect ,2010 Dawn of the Dumb Charlie Brooker,2007 The latest from Charlie Brooker The Hell of it All Charlie Brooker,2009 From the celebrated and anarchic author of Screen Burn Brass Eye Nathan Barley and TV Go Home comes a manifesto for life No longer confining his attentions to the media here one of Britain s most hilarious and vitriolic satirists takes us through an outrageous journey through all the many reasons he thinks contemporary life sucks
