Berliner,2009-10-05 A landmark in jazz studies Thinking in Jazz reveals as never before how musicians both individually and collectively learn to improvise Chronicling leading musicians from their first encounters with jazz to the development of a unique improvisatory voice Paul Berliner documents the lifetime of preparation that lies behind the skilled improviser's every idea. The product of more than fifteen years of immersion in the jazz world, Thinking in Jazz combines participant observation with detailed musicological analysis, the author's experience as a jazz trumpeter, interpretations of published material by scholars and performers, and above all, original data from interviews with more than fifty professional musicians: bassists George Duvivier and Rufus Reid; drummers Max Roach, Ronald Shannon Jackson, and Akira Tana; guitarist Emily Remler; pianists Tommy Flanagan and Barry Harris; saxophonists Lou Donaldson, Lee Konitz, and James Moody; trombonist Curtis Fuller; trumpeters Doc Cheatham, Art Farmer, Wynton Marsalis, and Red Rodney; vocalists Carmen Lundy and Veal Williams, and others. Together, the interviews provide insight into the production of jazz by great artists like Betty Carter, Miles Davis, Dizzy Gillespie, Coleman Hawkins, and Charlie Parker. Thinking in Jazz overflows with musical examples from the 1920s to the present, including original transcriptions keyed to commercial recordings of collective improvisations by Miles Davis's and John Coltrane's groups. These transcriptions provide additional insight into the structure and creativity of jazz improvisation and represent a remarkable resource for jazz musicians as well as students and educators. Berliner explores the alternative ways aural, visual, kinetic, verbal, emotional, theoretical, associative, in which these performers conceptualize their music and describes the delicate interplay of soloist and ensemble in collective improvisation. Berliner's skillful integration of data concerning musical development, the rigorous practice and thought artists devote to jazz outside of performance, and the complexities of composing in the moment leads to a new understanding of jazz improvisation as a language, an aesthetic, and a tradition. This unprecedented journey to the heart of the jazz tradition will fascinate and enlighten musicians, musicologists, and jazz fans alike. Books in Print, 1981 The Jazz Masters Peter C.

Zimmerman, 2021-11-01 The Jazz Masters: Setting the Record Straight is a celebration of jazz and the men and women who created and transformed it. In the twenty-one conversations contained in this engaging and highly accessible book, we hear from the musicians themselves in their own words, direct and unfiltered. Peter Zimmerman's interviewing technique is straightforward. He turns on a recording device, poses questions, and allows his subjects to improvise, similar to the way the musicians do at concerts and in recording sessions. Topics range from their early days, their struggles and victories, to the impact the music has had on their own lives. The interviews have been carefully edited for sense and clarity without changing any of the musicians' actual words. Peter Zimmerman tirelessly sought virtuosos whose lives span the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. The reader is rewarded with an intimate look into the past century's extraordinary period of creative productivity. The oldest two interview subjects were born in 1920 and all are professional musicians who worked in jazz for at least five decades, with a few enjoying careers as long as seventy-five years. These voices reflect some seventeen hundred years of accumulated experience, yielding a chronicle of incredible depth and scope. The focus on musicians who are now emeritus figures is deliberate. Some of them are now in their nineties; six have passed since 2012, when Zimmerman began researching The Jazz Masters. Five of them have already received the NEA's prestigious Jazz Masters award: Sonny Rollins, Clark Terry, Yusef Lateef Jimmy Owens and most recently Dick Hyman More undoubtedly will one day and the balance are likewise of compelling interest Artists such as David Amram Charles Davis Clifford Jordan Valery Ponomarev and Sandy Stewart to name a few open their hearts and memories and reveal who they are as people This book is a labor of love celebrating the vibrant style of music that Dizzy Gillespie once described as our native art form Zimmerman s deeply knowledgeable unabashed passion for jazz brings out the best in the musicians Filled with personal recollections and detailed accounts of their careers and everyday lives this highly readable lively work succeeds in capturing their stories for present and future generations An important addition to the literature of music The Jazz Masters goes a long way toward setting the record straight Norton anthology of Western music: Classic to twentieth century James Peter Burkholder, Claude V.
