Belinfante, 1998 Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Daghani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Daghani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image Dancing with the Unconscious Danielle Knafo, 2012-04-23 In writing and lecturing over the past two decades on the relationship between psychoanalysis and art Danielle Knafo has demonstrated the many ways in which these two disciplines inform and illuminate each other This book continues that discussion emphasizing how the creative process in psychoanalysis and art utilizes the unconscious in a quest for transformation and healing Part one of the book presents case studies to show how free association transference dream work regression altered states of consciousness trauma and solitude function as creative tools for analyst patient and artist Knafo uses the metaphor of dance to describe therapeutic action the back and forth movement between therapist and patient past and present containment and release and conscious and unconscious thought The analytic couple is both artist and medium and the dance they do together is a dynamic representation of the boundless creativity of the unconscious mind Part two of the book offers in depth studies of several artists to illustrate how they employ various media for self expression and self creation Knafo shows how artists

though mostly creating in solitude are frequently engaged in significant relational processes that attempt rapprochement with internalized objects and repair of psychic injury Dancing with the Unconscious expands the theoretical dimension of psychoanalysis while offering the clinician ways to realize greater creativity in work with patients Encounters in the Virtual Feminist Museum Griselda Pollock, 2023-04-14 Continuing her feminist reconceptualisation of the ways we can experience and study the visual arts world renowned art historian and cultural analyst Griselda Pollock proposes a series of new encounters through virtual exhibitions with art made by women over the twentieth century Challenging the dominant museum models of art and history that have been so exclusive of women's artistic contributions to the twentieth century the virtual feminist museum stages some of the complex relations between femininity modernity and representation Griselda Pollock draws on the models of both Aby Warburg's Mnemosyne Atlas and Freud's private museum of antiquities as well as Ettinger's concept of subjectivity as encounter to propose a differencing journey through time space and archive Featuring studies of Canova's Three Graces and women artist's modernist reclamations of the female body the book traverses the rupture of fascism and the Holocaust and ponders the significance of painting and drawing in their aftermath Artists featured include Georgia O'Keeffe Josephine Baker Gluck Charlotte Salomon Bracha Ettinger and Christine Taylor Patten

Literature of the Holocaust Robb Erskine, 2009 Examines the literature of the period of the Holocaust in Jewish history that includes the work of James E Young Lawrence W Langer Geoffrey H Hartman and others Revealing Lives Susan Groag Bell, Marilyn Yalom, 1990-10-18 In this book gender is the lens through which autobiography and biography are scrutinized The authors show what is revealed when they magnify the gendered aspects of both men's and women's writing The eternal questions of identity choice responsibility happiness tragedy and even death are interpreted in terms of gender analysis The book presents a sequence of studies from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth century that includes individuals such as American poet Anne Sexton and German writers Christa Wolf and Paul Celan and groups such as nineteenth century Mexican women and members of the British working class It extends the paradigm of self reflexive literature to include and highlight the overlap between autobiography and biography especially in the case of women who often wrote their lives obliquely through the biographies of their famous male relatives e.g. Adèle Hugo and Anne Thackeray Ritchie The authors refuse to accept a monolithic conception of gender The studies of Charles and Mary Lamb Nadezhda Durova and John Stuart Mill demonstrate that even in the nineteenth century a binary gender system is inadequate as a mode of approach to actual life stories Teacher's Guide Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington, 1986
