Charlotte Perriand:

Charlotte Perriand Jacques Barsac, 2014 A Life of Creation Charlotte Perriand, 2003 Charlotte Perriand has long been known in architectural circles for her association with famed Swiss French architect Le Corbusier for the important series of furniture they designed together for her own independent practice Charlotte Perriand Objects Furniture Des De Mugo et al Dachs, 2011-04 Charlotte Perriand 1903 1999 is one of Modernism's inspirational heroines a designer whose example makes others want to follow in her footsteps In 1927 when she was only 24 years old Perriand created Bar Under the Roof a type of steel and aluminum furniture for the Salon d'Automne of that year Le Corbusier saw it and immediately decided to hire her and in collaboration with him Perriand developed a series of tubular steel chairs that were soon hailed as icons of the Machine Age She remained at Le Corbusier's studio for more than a decade also collaborating with the artist Fernand Léger and the furniture designer Jean Prouvé In 1940 Perriand was invited to Japan as Industrial Design Advisor for the Ministry of Trade and Industry With the outbreak of World War II and unable to travel home she remained in Vietnam for four years where she learned weaving woodwork and the use of cane After the war she pursued a primarily architectural practice but her furniture design is as fresh today as it was 80 years ago A supremely independent spirit Perriand blazed the way for the acceptance of women in the male dominated realms of design interior design and architecture Charlotte Perriand: Objects and Furniture Design Patricia De Muga, Laura Garcia Hintze, Sandra Dachs, 2022-03-15 An affordable overview of the great French modernist's essential inventions This volume compiles iconic furniture pieces by Charlotte Perriand 1903-99 The French designer's career began in 1927 when she was just 24 and presented her steel and aluminum bar Bar under the roof at the Salon d'Automne prompting Le Corbusier to hire her as a furniture designer Perriand produced works with Le Corbusier and Pierre Jeanneret that remain canonical today In 1940 she was invited to Japan to be the official advisor on industrial design for the Ministry of Trade and Industry she recommended that the Japanese turn their efforts to creating products for export to the West Unable to return to Paris because of naval blockades she stayed in Vietnam for four years where she learned about weaving woodwork rattan and other natural products This experience prompted her to use materials such as bamboo and cane to create affordable mass produced furniture featured here along with other classic works Charlotte Perriand Justin McGuirk, 2021 An affordable concise survey on the influential modernist designer's interiors buildings furniture and more from a sawtooth ski resort to sculptural chaises longues From the onset of her career Charlotte Perriand was a maverick who believed in good design as a force for the betterment of society Many young designers would be devastated by a rejection from Le Corbusier's studio but when the great architect told her they had no use for a female furniture designer Perriand only became more determined to prove her mettle as an artist Under Le Corbusier and long after she left his studio Perriand's contributions to both furniture design and architecture demonstrated a unique attention to the organic artistry of nature as well as the egalitarian possibilities of the machine age Her leftwing populist politics motivated much of her work from modular furniture systems to major architectural projects This monograph explores Perriand's most famous interiors original furniture and architectural projects as well as her never before seen sketchbooks shedding new light on her creative process and place in design history Charlotte Perriand 1903-99 experienced the first breakthrough in her career with Le Bar sous le toit a 1927 interior design piece that predicted the elegant minimalism and utilitarian nature of her future work Although today she is perhaps best known for her early chaise longue designs Perriand also created the plans for a number of major buildings across Europe and contributed interior designs to Le Corbusier's Unité d'habitation She worked in places as diverse as Tokyo Rio de Janeiro and London in her pursuit of accessible design Charlotte Perriand Charlotte Perriand, Charlotte Benton, 1997 Charlotte Perriand José Luis Sert, 1956
