Charm Of Evil The Life And Films Of Terence Fisher:

The Charm of Evil Wheeler W. Dixon, 1991 Terence Fisher brought the modern Gothic horror film to life in the second half of the twentieth century As director John Carpenter Halloween notes in his introduction Terence Fisher and The Curse of Frankenstein was the beginning of it all for the modern horror film Terence Fisher Paul Leggett, 2010-06-28 Some critics in England and France have long maintained that British director Terence Fisher whose films dominated world markets in the 1950s and 60s was one of the greatest directors of fantasy films in history Since his death in 1980 Fisher's reputation has grown from relative obscurity and his influence on the development of the modern horror film has been widely recognized However Fisher's importance should not be limited to the context of the fantasy and horror film genres His films should also be recognized as expressions of his generalizations about human spirituality This critical study of Fisher's films begins with an introduction that provides biographical information on his film career summaries of all of the films he directed and examples of his impact on contemporary cinema All of Fisher's films are analyzed in terms of their Christian and religious themes as well as their mythical sources Chapters are devoted to Fisher's work on the subjects of Frankenstein Dracula curses The Devil Rides Out the ancient goddess The Gorgon the divided self The Man Who Could Cheat Death and the redeemer hero The Strangers of Bombay The concluding chapter analyzes the role and influence of Biblical narratives in Fisher's films Also included is a filmography the work is fully indexed Hugo Friedhofer Linda Danly, 1999 In this paperbound reprint of a 1999 work Danly composer and film music historian tells the story of Hugo Friedhofer who began his career as a film composer at the start of the sound era and was a major contributor to the artistic development of this genre of music The chapters consist of an introduction by television producer and author Tony Thomas a portrait of Friedhofer by Danly an oral history drawn from an American Film Institute interview his correspondence with film music critic Page Cook a memoir by his friend music journalist Gene Lees and the memorial speech delivered by film composer David Raskin Several b w photographs are included Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Life is Beautiful, But Not for Jews Kobi Niv, 2003-09-29 Roberto Benigni's romantic comedy Life is Beautiful enjoyed tremendous success everywhere it was shown In addition to winning almost every possible film award including three Oscars lavish praise and film reviews it grossed over a quarter of a billion dollars the most profitable Italian movie ever Very few have questioned the movie until now With sharp uncompromising logic and eye opening insight Niv analyzes the film and its script scene by scene to show why Life is Beautiful is very far from being the innocent charming and heartwarming film it appears to be The author argues that the film not only lends support to the central arguments of Holocaust deniers but is actually a quasi theological Christian parable which seeks to justify the extermination of Jews in the 20th century as divine punishment for the sin of the crucifixion of Jesus two thousand years ago Life is Beautiful But Not for Jews is a riveting book that simply and concisely raises some important and complex ideas about film and psychology in post Holocaust civilization It also serves as an elementary course in the appreciation of films and artistic texts in general and in deciphering their deeper meanings teaching the reader to more clearly grasp the hidden significance of cultural processes This is the first English translation of the Hebrew text
