Charmed Circle James R. Mellow, 2003-05-01 The renowned writer Gertrude Stein her peers and avant garde Paris come to life in this meticulous and loving reconstruction of the period The New York Times Book Review On almost every Saturday of the first half of the twentieth century Gertrude Stein would open her door to the likes of Picasso and Matisse Hemingway and Fitzgerald Cocteau and Apollinaire welcoming them into a salon alive with vivid avant garde paintings and sparkling intellectual conversation In Charmed Circle James R Mellow has recreated this fascinating world and the complex woman who dominated it His engaging narrative illuminates Stein s writing now celebrated along with the work of such literary giants as Joyce and Woolf including her difficult early periods which adapted cubism and abstraction to the written word Rich with detail and insight it conveys both the serene rhythms of daily life with her devoted partner Alice B Toklas and the radical pulse and dramatic upheavals of her exciting era Spanning the years from 1903 when Stein first arrived in Paris to her final days at the end of the Second World War Charmed Circle is a penetrating and lively account of a writer at the heart of modernity A rich and compelling portrait of an extraordinary personage and a mural of the people in her life She has been given a biographer worthy of her Los Angeles Times Entertaining and comprehensive a delightful book The New Yorker A beautifully achieved work of biography one which superbly captures its eccentric subject Reason Charmed Circle James Robert Mellow, 1982 Charmed Circle . Gertrude Stein and Company James B.. Mellow, 1975 Charmed Circle James R. Mellow, 1974 Charmed Circle James R. Mellow, Spanning the years from 1903 when Gertrude Stein first arrived in Paris to her final days at the end of World War II Charmed Circle is a penetrating and lively account of a writer at the heart of modernity Four 8 page photo inserts Writing the Lost Generation Craig Monk, 2010-11 Members of the Lost Generation American writers and artists who lived in Paris during the 1920s continue to occupy an important place in our literary history Rebellious against increased commercialism and the ebb of cosmopolitan society in early twentieth century America they rejected the culture of what Ernest Hemingway called a place of broad lawns and narrow minds Much of what we know about these iconic literary figures comes from their own published letters and essays revealing how adroitly they developed their own reputations by controlling the reception of their work Surprisingly the literary world has paid less attention to their autobiographies In Writing the Lost Generation Craig Monk unlocks a series of neglected texts while reinvigorating our reading of more familiar ones Well known autobiographies by Malcolm Cowley Ernest Hemingway and Gertrude Stein are joined here by works from a variety of lesser known but still important expatriate American writers including Sylvia Beach Alfred Kreymborg Samuel Putnam and Harold Stearns By bringing together the self reflective works of the Lost Generation and probing the ways the writers portrayed themselves Monk provides an exciting and comprehensive overview of modernist expatriates from the United States Dictionary of Real People and Places in Fiction M.C.
