Charting New Waters Chocolate Waters, 1980 What It Was All About Steven H. Propp, 2015-12-07 The year is 1970 The Supreme Court has legalized abortion Equal Pay for Equal Work is now the law and Affirmative Action programs attempt to redress past injustices and inequities Women are coming together nationwide in consciousness raising groups sharing their knowledge and experiences with each other A group of six women in Stentoria California bond through such a group and support each other as women in this new Movement are forming collectives publishing their own books and periodicals creating an exciting new genre of Womens Music as well as starting their own bookstores to make these new materials readily available to the community New spiritual movements focused on the Divine Feminine principle are also beginning Even some men are sympathetic and supportive of these ideals But as the 1980s arrive the situation changes the backlash against the womens movement in politics and the media seemingly turns into a full fledged war specifically targeting the gains that women have achieved Opposition from traditional religions hardens and womens reproductive rights come under renewed attack the Equal Rights Amendment fails even as women themselves debate controversial questions such as banning pornography and how to view a rising Third Wave of the womens movement Ominously the threat of AIDS seemingly brings the era of sexual freedom to a close The six women deal with all these issues as well as personal challenges including balancing work and family responsibilities As the new century begins they reflect about what the womens movement ultimately accomplished In a world now characterized by growing economic inequality increasing low self esteem for some women exemplified by cosmetic surgery and extreme makeovers legalized same sex marriage and media attention to Transgender issues this book may help you to appreciate not only how far weve come but how far we have yet to go
