Chateau, Jardin, Cuisine Regina von Planta, 2019-03 Chateau Jardin Cuisine highlights some of the exquisite dishes of this southern region of France where Mediterranean traditions combine with the nourishing recipes from its northern plateau Famous for goats cheese and chestnuts the cuisine of the Ardèche evokes memories of stony fields rugged castles remote farms and old stone houses a mountainous land with rivers full of eels wild trout in rock pools where autumn brings an abundance of game wine and mushrooms Yet nature has also dealt the Ardèche a difficult hand the stony and dry soil as well as the steep terrain divided into countless small terraces make farming and cooking with the produce a true labour of love as is this book
