The Forgotten Chaucer Scholarship of Mary Eliza Haweis, 1848-1898 Mary Flowers Braswell, 2016-06-17 The author of numerous books on Geoffrey Chaucer the nineteenth century scholar Mary Eliza Haweis has been largely erased from general histories of Chaucer studies In her critical biography Mary Flowers Braswell traces Haweis s career bringing her out of obscurity and placing her contributions to Chaucer scholarship in the context of those of influential Chaucerians of the period such as Frederick James Furnivall Walford Dakin Selby and Walter Rye Braswell draws on extensive archival research from a broad range of late Victorian newspapers journals and society papers to weave a fascinating picture of Haweis s own life and work which in quantity and quality rivaled that of her contemporaries Haweis we discover corrected assumptions related to the Chaucer seal and texts bringing her findings to the attention of the public in works such as Chaucer for Schools the first textbook on the poet Braswell also sheds light on the ways in which fashion society culture art and leisure activities intermingled with scholarship archival recovery museum work editing writing and publishing in the late Victorian middle and upper classes Concluding with a discussion of Haweis s forgotten role as head of the Chaucer section for the National Home Reading Union Braswell s book makes a strong case both for Haweis s influence as a Chaucer scholar and her importance as an educator in nineteenth century Britain and the United States
