N. ecosophical writings of Felix Guattari this book explores the many ways that aesthetics in the forms of visual art film sculpture painting literature and the screenplay can act as catalysts allowing us to see the world differently beyond traditional modes of representation This is in direct parallel to Guattari's own attempt to break down the 19th century Kantian dialectic between man art and world in favour of a non hierarchical transversal approach to produce a more ethical and ecologically sensitive world view Each chapter author analyses artworks which critique capitalism's industrial devastation of the environment while at the same time offering affirmative imaginative futures suggested by art Including contributions from philosophers film theorists and artists this book asks How can we interact with the world in a non dominant and non destructive way How can art catalyze new ethical relations with non human entities and the environment And crucially what part can philosophy play in rethinking these structures of interaction On the Production of

Subjectivity S. O'Sullivan, 2012-09-24 This book offers a series of critical commentaries on and forced encounters between different thinkers At stake in this philosophical and psychoanalytical enquiry is the drawing of a series of diagrams of the finite infinite relation and the mapping out of the contours for a speculative and pragmatic production of subjectivity

Dividuum Gerald Raunig, 2016-02-19 Raunig develops a philosophy of dividuality as a way of addressing contemporary modes of production and forms of life The animal of the molecular revolution will be neither mole nor snake but a drone animal thing that is solid liquid and a gas from Dividuum As the philosophical religious and historical systems that have produced the individual and its counterparts society and community over the years continue to break down the age of dividuality is now upon us The roots of the concept of the dividuum can be traced back to Latin philosophy when Cicero used the term to translate the divisible in the writings of Epicurus and Plato later medieval scholars utilized the term in theological discussions on the unity of the trinity Grounding himself in the writings of the medieval bishop Gilbert de Poitiers and his extensive commentaries on Boethius Gerald Raunig charts a genealogy of the concept and develops a philosophy of dividuality as a way of addressing contemporary modes of production and forms of life Through its components of dispersion subsistence and similarity dividuality becomes a hidden principle of obedience and conformity but it also brings with it the potential to realize disobedience and noncompliant con dividualities Raunig s bad news is that dividuality is responsible for much of the intensified exploitation and enslavement taking place under contemporary machinic capitalism Algorithms derivatives big data and social media technology all contribute to the rampant expansion of divisive management strategies and desires for self division The good news however is that this same terrain of dividuality presents an opportunity for a new kind of resistance one that can be realized in the form of con division      Populating the Future Britt Johanne attentiveness to specific nature culture contexts and to a text's many interdiscursive connections Posthumus identifies four key concepts ecological subjectivity ecological dwelling ecological politics and ecological ends for changing how we think about human nature relations French cocritique highlights the importance of moving beyond canonical ecocritical texts and examining a diversity of cultural and literary traditions for new ways of imagining the environment Tariq Alvi Tariq Alvi, Andrea Tarsia, 2001 Tariq Alvi was born in Newcastle in 1965 and is now based in Holland where he completed his studies at the Jan van Eyck Akademie Maastricht He has been gaining increasing international recognition and this is published alongside his first major presentation in the UK The language of Tariq Alvi's presentations is borrowed as much from the market stall or the teenage bedroom as it is from contemporary art His raw material is the wealth of visual imagery that is in constant circulation newspapers magazines club flyers These he meticulously collects cuts and arranges over a variety of surfaces reconfiguring each work anew each time it is exhibited Collaged photographs photocopies newspaper clippings and hand written notes create thoughts in progress that cover entire walls Standard corkboards are strewn with images of glittering jewellery scissors glue sticks and simple drawings lie scattered across everyday worktops Alvi's work strikes a strong contemporary chord revealing the fragmentary nature of contemporary experience from the hedonism of urban gay culture to the life style options presented by a sensationalising media Alvi himself presents something of a role model to a younger generation of British Asian artists whom the Whitechapel began to follow and present in 1999 with 000zerozerozero a cross disciplinary three week event which tapped into the British Asian underground artistic scene Many of the participating artists such as Runa Islam and Simon Tegala have since gained international recognition and the whole event presented an opportunity for debate and discussion This publication provides an in depth focus on Alvi's work to date and is fully illustrated throughout Psychology in Society, 1997 Organized Networks Ned Rossiter, 2006 The celebration of network cultures as open decentralized and horizontal all too easily overshadows their political dimensions Organized Networks sets out to destroy these myths by tracking the antagonisms that lurk within Internet governance debates the exploitation of labor in creative industries and the aesthetics of global finance capital Cutting across the fields of media theory political philosophy and cultural critique Ned Rossiter diagnoses some of the key problematics facing network cultures today BOOK JACKET Polygraph, 2002 Arttext, 1996 Cinematic Folds Firoza Elavia, 2008 The Other Side of the Popular Gareth Williams, 2002-05-22 Addresses the structural and historical transformations leading to the neoliberal order in Latin America Cultural Turns/geographical Turns Ian Cook, 2000 This book addresses the impact significance and characteristics of the cultural turn in contemporary geography It focuses on the development of the cultural geography subdiscipline and on what has made it a peculiar and unique realm of study It demonstrates the importance of culture in the development of debates in other subdisciplines within geography and beyond In line with these previous themes the significance of space in the production of cultural values and expressions is also developed Along with its timely examination of the health of the cultural geographical subdiscipline this book is to be valued for its analysis of the impact of cultural theory on studies elsewhere in geography and of ideas of space and spatiality elsewhere in the social sciences The scope of the book is therefore broad covering work that spans the geographical discipline and even going beyond that to touch on debates in the social sciences and humanities The book's potential readership is also broad The summary chapters which precede each section will appeal to undergraduate students whilst chapters written by individuals leading their fields will be compulsory reading for researchers at all levels of higher education
