Characteristics of Men, Manners, Opinions, Times Anthony Ashley Cooper, 1870      Characteristics of Men, Manners, Opinions, Times, Etc Anthony Ashley Cooper Earl of Shaftesbury, 1900      Catalogue of the Library of William Bleakley William Bleakley, 1877      The Speaker, 1901      The Literary World, 1900      The Making of Meaning Niklas Luhmann, Michael King, 2022 For the first time this publication makes available to Anglophone readers a sociology of knowledge and culture as developed by the sociologist and social theorist Niklas Luhmann. Luhmann is typically described as writing only about systems and as such about a topic that sociologists relegate to the annals of history. However, this publication reveals that sociology has acted prematurely overlooking the rich and detailed sociology of knowledge and culture that on the one hand uses terms like meaning, memory and communication and on the other is very capable of using such terms in the form of a historical analysis that unravels the making and transformation of key concepts and questions that shape the understanding of modern society like individuality and individualism, culture and memory and social class. This theoretical approach and the empirical material as well as the insights drawn from their combination yield rich and surprising results and show a very different image of Luhmann than that of system theorist. As such, this volume will be of great interest to scholars in the field of social theory, sociology of knowledge and cultural sociology but also conceptual and cultural history as well as culturally oriented research in the arts and humanities.      English Literature An Illustrated Record in Eight Volumes. Volume III-Part II. From Milton to Johnson Edmund Gosse, 1903      Caxton head catalogues. No. 186-1027 [with] Caxton head bulletin. 1-22 [and lists]. Tregaskis James and son, 1900      Architecture, Liberty and Civic Order Carroll William Westfall, 2016-03-09 This book brings to light central topics that are neglected in current histories and theories of architecture and urbanism. These include the role of imitation in earlier centuries and its potential role in present practice, the necessary relationship between architecture, urbanism and the rural districts and their counterpart in the civil order that builds and uses what is built. The narrative traces two models for the practice of architecture. One follows the ancient model in which the architect renders his service to serve the interests of others; it survives and is dominant in modernism. The other first formulated in the fifteenth century by Leon Battista Alberti has the architect use his talent in coordination with others to contribute to the common good of a republican civil order that seeks to protect its own liberty and that of its citizens. Palladio practiced this way and so did Thomas Jefferson when he founded a uniquely American architecture, the counterpart to the nation's founding. This narrative gives particular emphasis to the contrasting developments in architecture on the opposite sides of the English Channel. The book presents the value for clients and architects today and in the future of drawing on history and tradition. It stresses the importance, indeed the urgency, of restoring traditional practices so that we can build just beautiful and sustainable cities and rural districts that will once again assist citizens in living not only abundantly but also well as they pursue their happiness.      Famous Modern Presses
