Charge To Keep The Life Of Earl Gladstone Hunt Jr:

A Charge to Keep James C. Logan, 2000 A Charge to Keep is the biography of Earl Gladstone Hunt Jr pastor college president and bishop of The United Methodist Church In this account that captures the essence of a well known leader in The United Methodist Church readers will see how one bishop has served the church in ways that reflect his background education love of language and history and most of all his love for the church and the spreading of the gospel They Also Serve Jane P. Ives, 2020-03-31 Stories from the women and men who have served alongside Methodist and United Methodist bishops When a bishop is elected in The United Methodist Church it is not only the one elected who is asked to serve but his or her spouse and family as well Hear the stories of how Methodist and United Methodist episcopal spouses have adjusted to and navigated this life changing journey While dealing with the full range of human experience births deaths relationship struggles and illness they also travel the world participate in mission and ceremonies meet interesting people and stand up for justice Through hardships celebrations and everyday struggles these spouses find their own paths of ministry answering the calls that are also placed upon their lives In these ways and many others they also serve Praise for They Also Served A meticulous labor of love by Jane P Ives They Also Served remembers faithful unsung Christians by chronicling previously unrecorded details of the spouses of episcopal leaders Sometimes in the spotlight often in the shadows the bishop s spouses struggled to fulfill unpaid roles and undefined responsibilities in the church usually far from family and friends Ives empathetically highlights how these persons usually without voice or vote helped shape the church s mission and ministry Dr Donald E Messer Executive Director Central for Health and Hope Focusing on Global HIV and AIDS Centennial Colorado Bishops may ebb and flow in their popularity based on their decisions but their spouses are almost universally loved and admired Jane Ives helps readers understand why that is the case with her comprehensive story of the impressive diverse and thoroughly dedicated women and men who have contributed so much to God s work Lovett H Weems Jr Distinguished Professor of Church Leadership Emeritus Wesley Theological Seminary Washington DC In the gospel of Luke Jesus sent the disciples out two by two to every town and country every charge and conference Ives book records the wisdom of sending two and restores the names of those often forgotten in the story of the people called Methodists the spouses These are remarkable oral histories as well as timelines of social holiness and global service This is not a book about survival in ministry and marriage it s a testimony to those who thrived in their calling Heather Murray Elkins Professor of Worship Preaching and the Arts The Theological School of Drew University Madison New Jersey This is a book about discipleship It is also a book about ministry and itinerancy It tells stories of how God sometimes calls two people to the work of episcopacy people who happen to be married to each other It is a book that will make you laugh and cry This book is an important addition to the literature of Methodist episcopacy And it is a hard book to put down William Boyd Grove Bishop Ret of The United Methodist Church Jane Ives has given the Methodist family a priceless treasure Through an astonishing effort to collect memories and explore archival material she has compiled a comprehensive record of episcopal spouses their stories accomplishments and contributions to the church But this book is more than a biographical dictionary It offers a poignant insightful account of the lives of bishops their spouses and families and the impact of the church s expectations on all of them As a little boy I knew firsthand the phone call get on a train to New Orleans with your sister your Daddy is going to be a bishop Allow me to testify then that this book is the real deal genuine human and rich with faith and Spirit Thomas E Frank Associate Dean for Continuing Studies Graduate School of Arts and Science Wake Forest University Winston Salem North Carolina Laity and clergy active in United Methodist life and their spouses will want to immerse themselves in this corporate autobiography which provides an overview of Methodism through almost 80 years of personal experiences and cultural change Jane Ives an episcopal spouse has amassed here narratives reports and communications crafted by her spousal colleagues living and dead as well as by those who have known them For page after page the reader will relive Methodism s sometimes gradual sometimes dramatic evolution and its struggles with race gender inclusivity and global relationships The bishops spouses have shown great creativity in making the most of their opportunities to be together during Council meetings sharing ideas establishing covenant and interest groups and adjusting their organization to respond to changing needs Ives has devoted the final third of the book to profiles of the spouses some quite famous and others whose names are not even known These vignettes illustrate how different episcopal spouses have lived out their own calling and how they have impacted the church and the world Russell E Richey Dean Emeritus of Candler School of Theology and William R Cannon Distinguished Professor of Church History Emeritus Durham North Carolina

By the Grace of God BISHOP EBEN KANUKAYI NHIWATIWA,2024-03-21 An African bishop shares his story and ministry Born in the small Zimbabwean village of Gandanzara Bishop Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa became an inspired and accomplished leader in the church and larger society Elected as a bishop in The United Methodist Church in 2004 he has guided ministries in Zimbabwe and across Africa and beyond through periods of immense and rapid change In his book By the Grace of God the bishop takes the reader through his educational odyssey winding through Zimbabwe and the United States He narrates with humor his introduction to the US and its unfamiliar customs He inspires readers with the story of the remarkable series of events that shaped him as a Christian and bishop The book provides a succinct master class on the art and science of leadership Drawing inspiration and insights from an array of literature and astute observation Nhiwatiwa synthesizes what have been his most important gleanings about factors that contribute to visionary and effective leadership Nhiwatiwa became known as the Chabadza Bishop advocating for vibrant mutual partnerships with churches and annual conferences in other parts of the world Chabadza is a Shona word meaning to give a helping hand to someone who is already working He urges people asking for help to be active workers in the project themselves He has diligently advanced ideas for collaboration that eliminate approaches rooted in maintaining dependency Nhiwatiwa writes Life changing events in my life took place not because of my sustained goal to pursue a certain objective but that by the grace of God His witness and leadership have helped transform The United Methodist Church for ministry in the twenty first century

Episcopacy in the Methodist Tradition Russell E. Richey, Thomas Edward Frank, 2004 This book explores Methodist episcopacy in the U S and reviews notions of and expectations about episcopal leadership held by United Methodists today After a careful historical study Richey and Frank give helpful perspectives on a current proposal to the 2004 General Conference by the Council of Bishops to elect a bishop who will serve a four year term as the Council s president More generally and for the longer term this book examines the need for organizational change and theological reflection on the office of bishop while reviewing the implications of such reorganization of the Council of Bishops including the election process By examining what Methodists have meant by the words itinerant general superintendent the authors discuss the polity of the Church and explore the constraints concern and possibilities for episcopal leadership
