Charity Begins At Home Generosity And Self Interest Among The Philanthropic Elite:

Charity Begins At Home Teresa Odendahl, 1990-05-14 This book is almost certain to anger the individuals it studies Odendahl interviewed over 140 wealthy American philanthropists regarding their charitable activities and through interpretative analysis she suggests that the rich support upper class charitable interests such as private colleges while basic human services are neglected Despite politicians rhetoric the private sector is unlikely to compensate for cutbacks in government social programs she concludes Reasonable objections can be made to some of Odendahl s interpretations especially those that stray into psychoanalysis is guilt reduction really a motive toward philanthropy but her argument is so passionate that it merits discussion Both public and academic libraries will want this From Library Journal The Logic of Charity Beth Breeze, J. Mohan, 2016-07-26 What is charity How does it operate who does it benefit and what should we expect it to do This important book helps to tackle the most common misunderstandings and misconceptions of charitable activity in contemporary British society especially insofar as these affect the thinking of politicians and policymakers The authors present and discuss over a dozen studies including public attitudes to giving large datasets on the geography and funding patterns of third sector organisations and interviews with a wide range of donors charity leaders fundraisers and philanthropy advisers This data enables them to explore the logic of charity in terms of the distribution of resources across causes and communities in the UK and the processes behind philanthropic decision making to reveal a picture of charitable activity at odds with widespread assumptions Marcel Mauss Wendy James, N. J. Allen, 1998 Presents results of a September 1996 conference held at Oxford University re evaluating the importance of the writings and inspiration of Marcel Mauss the nephew and younger colleague of Emile Durkheim Explores not only the context of Mauss work and his influence on other writers but also the resonance of some of his key themes for the concerns of today s anthropology and sociology Papers are arranged in sections on the scholar and his time foundations of Maussian anthropology critiques of exchange and power and materiality body and history Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Socialism, Capitalism and Alternatives Peter J. S. Duncan, Elisabeth Schimpfössl, 2019-10-14 In 1989 the Berlin Wall came down Two years later the Soviet Union disintegrated The collapse of communism in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union discredited the idea of socialism for generations to come It was seen as representing the final and irreversible victory of capitalism This triumphal dominance was barely challenged until the 2008 financial crisis threw the Western world into a state of turmoil Through analysis of post socialist Russia and Central and Eastern Europe as well as of the United Kingdom China and the United States Socialism Capitalism and Alternatives confronts the difficulty we face in articulating alternatives to capitalism socialism and threatening populist regimes Beginning with accounts of the impact of capitalism on countries left behind by the planned economies the volume moves on to consider how China has become a beacon of dynamic economic growth aggressively expanding its global influence The final section of the volume poses alternatives to the ideological dominance of neoliberalism in the West Since the 2008 financial crisis demands for social change have erupted across the world Exposing the failure of neoliberalism in the United Kingdom and examining recent social movements in Europe and the United States the closing chapters identify how elements of past ideas are re emerging among them Keynesianism and radical socialism As those chapters indicate these ideas might well have potential to mobilise support and challenge the dominance of neoliberalism

Charity in Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Traditions Julia R. Lieberman, Michal Jan Rozbicki, 2017-07-25 This collection of essays by a team of international scholars addresses the topic of Charity through the lenses of the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam The contributors look for common paradigms in the ways the three faiths address the needs of the poor and the needy in their respective societies and reflect on the interrelatedness of such practices among the three religions They ask how the three traditions deal with the distribution of wealth in the recognition that not all members of a given society have equal access to it and in the relationship of charity to the inheritance systems and family structures They reveal systemic patterns that are similar norms virtue theological validations exclusionary rules private responsibility to society issues that have implications for intercultural and interfaith understanding Conversely the essays inquire how the three faiths differ in their understanding of poverty wealth and justifications for charity
