Charity in the Dutch Republic Sheila D'moch Muller,1985 The Logic of Charity Marco H.D. Van Leeuwen,2000-04-07 This study analyses poor relief in preindustrial Europe from 1800 to 1850 as a survival strategy of the poor and as a control strategy of the elites It deals with poverty and the problems of the poor but also with wealth and the concerns of the elites and of the middle classes A simple model of poor relief is presented based on insights derived from history sociology and welfare economics It is tested against the historical records of Amsterdam from 1800 to 1850 The study brings out some of the perennial problems of social policy past and present as well as some aspects of Old Regime charity now vanished The Reformation of Charity Thomas Max Safley,2003-01-01 Spiritual ideals in early modern Europe shaped political and social poor relief structures just as much as rationalization and effective administration colored ecclesiastical charity efforts Thomas Max Safley examines the roles of the community in responding to poverty whatever the context religious political or private the elite Images of Miraculous Healing in the Early Modern Netherlands Barbara A. Kaminska,2021-11-08 Images of Miraculous Healing in the Early Modern Netherlands explores the ways in which paintings and prints of biblical miracles shaped viewers approaches to physical and sensory impairments and bolstered their belief in supernatural healing and charitable behavior Drawing upon a vast range of sources Barbara Kaminska demonstrates that visual imagery held a central place in premodern disability discourses and that the exegesis of New Testament miracle stories determined key attitudes toward the sick and the poor Addressed to middle class collectors many of the images analyzed in this study have hitherto been neglected by art historians Link to book presentation <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=79jHEmTOKnU> The Reformation of Community Charles H. Parker,1998-11-28 By the time of the Calvinist Reformation the cities of Holland had established a very long tradition of social provision for the poor in the civic community Calvinists however intended to care for their own church members who were by definition within the household of faith through the deaconate a confessional relief agency This book examines the relationship between municipal and ecclesiastical relief agencies in the six chief cities of Holland Dordrecht Haarlem Delft Leiden Amsterdam and Gouda from the public establishment of the Reformed Church in 1572 to the aftermath of the Synod of Dort The author argues that the conflict between charitable organizations reveal competing conceptions of Christian community that came to the fore as a result of the Dutch Reformation This is the first comparative study of poor relief in Holland which contributes to our understanding of the Reformation throughout Europe Fulfilling God's Mission Willem Frijhoff,2007 This biography recalls the fascinating life of the second Reformed minister of New Amsterdam New York from his mystical experience as a 15 year old orphan in Holland until his tragic death as a spokesman of the opposition during Kieft's War Individuals, Families, and Communities in Europe, 1200-1800 Katherine A. Lynch,2003-08-21 A study of the family's function in western society from 1200 1800 first published in 2003 The Role of the Charitable Institution in the Early Modern Dutch
