A full factual entry on each work appears at the back of the book, preceded by extremely brief summaries of the acquisitions histories of the overall collection's painting, drawing, sculpture, Williams' portraits, prints, photographs, posters, and decorative arts. American Moderns on Paper Erin Monroe, Carol Troyen, 2010 American Moderns on Paper presents a selection of approximately 100 of the finest watercolors, pastels, and drawings by leading American modernists from the Wadsworth Atheneum's renowned collection of American art. Works by Sloan, O'Keeffe, Hopper, Marin, Dal, and Wyeth, among many others, serve as notable examples of the various styles and subjects pursued by artists in America from 1910 to 1960. The catalogue entries are accompanied by artist biographies. Organized chronologically and generously illustrated throughout, the catalogue is introduced by two essays exploring the historical significance of the collection and the importance to American modernists of working on paper rather than canvas. Providing a rich history of the collection, the volume illuminates not only its historic roots but also the concurrent national evolution of interest in watercolor and drawings. Weekly, 2007 Charles Burchfield 1893 1967 was an innovative visionary of American modernism a watercolor painter who infused his landscapes of upstate New York and Ohio and scenes of small town industrialization with pulsing line and crackling fluid color He was also an accomplished writer who kept extensive journals and published several important essays during his lifetime Burchfield's early watercolors were often strongly expressionistic projecting a buoyant spirituality he reached a critical juncture around 1920 when he turned to modernist pictorial strategies to express a severe geometry of houses factories and barren trees with skies traversed by stylized smoke After moving to Buffalo in 1921 he became a founder of the Regionalist movement but he returned to the dynamic expressionism of his youth in the 1940s as he told a friend It is not that I am trying to escape real life but that the realm of fantasy offers the true solution of truly evaluating an experience Published for DC Moore Gallery's survey exhibition and coinciding with the Whitney Museum's 2010 retrospective this volume presents a career wide selection of watercolors and drawings many of which are drawn from private collections and have never or very rarely been exhibited The images are complemented by four autobiographical essays spanning the years 1928 to 1965 which provide an intriguing window into the artist's complex personality All are out of print and difficult to locate making this catalogue an important reference source as well as a visually striking presentation of his work Master Drawings from the Cleveland Museum of Art Diane DeGrazia, Cleveland Museum of Art, Carter E. Foster, 2000 The volume has been produced to accompany an exhibition of these rarely seen works which will be presented in Cleveland and then travel to the Morgan Library in New York It will be a treasured addition to the library of every lover of the art of drawing BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

a particularly North American sensibility that critic Dave Hickey said continues to evoke an unrepentant gnostic vision of this vast rolling abandoned continent America without Europe America without Americans a massive alluring kingdom For nearly his entire life Burchfield also kept a journal Over 54 years he filled nearly 10 000 pages To call this journal epic would be an understatement A masterpiece whose bulk has remained unread it is a handwritten tome that combines elements of the American nature journal with a dash of 19th century spiritual autobiography It is a record of a man who spent much of his life looking at and considering the sky In this comparatively small selection pulled from the original 62 volumes we find Burchfield writing about sitting in the grass with his wife to nap and watch the sunset He writes about the elation he feels at seeing the first flowers in the spring He writes about the rain wind and sun There s the resentment of having a job the depression that sneaks in as he gets older sometimes too he writes about the state of human progress and occasionally thoughts about God It is the tender record of a life devoted to the essences of earthly beauty Best known for his romantic often fantastic depictions of nature watercolorist Charles Burchfield 1893 1967 developed a unique style of watercolor painting that reflected distinctly American subjects and his profound respect for nature Library Journal ,1992-07
