Charles Ricketts Subtle And Fantastic Decorator:

G. Paul Delaney, 1990 This is the first major study of the life and times of Charles Ricketts 1866 1931 whose spirited career encompassed many aspects of late Victorian and Edwardian culture including book and theatre design painting sculpture and art criticism and whose friends included Yeats Thomas Moore Housman and Bottomley Drawing on a wide range of material much of it unpublished or newly discovered Delaney reveals a man of strong opinions and artistic convictions a fierce opponent of Postimpressionism and modernism who was noted for his wit liveliness generosity and versatility His story gives a fascinating look at the cultural and artistic life of England before and after the turn of the century

The Theatrical Designs of Charles Ricketts Eric Binnie, 1985 Ancient Egypt in the Modern Imagination Eleanor Dobson, Nichola Tonks, 2020-01-23 Ancient Egypt has always been a source of fascination to writers artists and architects in the West This book is the first study to address representations of Ancient Egypt in the modern imagination breaking down conventional disciplinary boundaries between fields such as History Classics Art History Fashion Film Archaeology Egyptology and Literature to further a nuanced understanding of ancient Egypt in cultures stretching from the eighteenth century to the present day emphasising how some of the various meanings of ancient Egypt to modern people have traversed time and media Divided into three themes the chapters scrutinise different aspects of the use of ancient Egypt in a variety of media looking in particular at the ways in which Egyptology as a discipline has influenced representations of Egypt ancient Egypt's associations with death and mysticism as well as connections between ancient Egypt and gendered power The diversity of this study aims to emphasise both the multiplicity and the patterning of popular responses to ancient Egypt as well as the longevity of this phenomenon and its relevance today Catalogue of the Works of Charles Ricketts R.A. Michael Richard Barclay, Charles S. Ricketts, Carlisle Museum & Art Gallery, 1985 The World in Paint David Peters Corbett, 2004 This anonymous manuscript play has long been the subject of scholarly dispute regarding its relationship with Shakespeare's Richard II This edition which thoroughly re-examines the text situates the play within its historical and political context relating it to the genre of chronicle drama to which it belongs The manuscript is of particular interest in that it appears to have been used in the playhouse over a considerable period of time and contains what seems to be evidence of the theatre practice of the time The play is also of special interest for its skilful and original handling of source material which may well have influenced Shakespeare's Richard II The extensive appendices drawn from Holinshed Grafton and Stow provide the reader with the opportunity to investigate the manner in which the dramatist has shaped the material The editors argue for the play's stage worthiness and dramatic complexity suggesting that its range both of dramatic tone and social inclusiveness indicate the work of a dramatist of considerable skill and subtlety equal or superior to the Shakespeare of the Henry VI plays

Book Illustrators of the Twentieth Century Brigid Peppin, Lucy Micklethwait, 1984 A History of the Eragny Press, 1894-1914 Marcella Genz, 1990 The Last Romantics Mary Anne Stevens, 1989 Examines the treatment of imaginative figure subjects in British art from the decline of Pre Raphaelitism to the rise of Neo Romanticism Antiquarian Book Monthly Review, 1979 Wood Engraving & the Woodcut in Britain, C.1890-1990 James Hamilton, 1994 This book traces the history of xylography the art of wood engravings and woodcut The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 English Prints for the Collector Stephen Calloway, 1981 Decadent Style John Robert Reed, 1985 In Decadent Style John Reed defines decadent art broadly enough to encompass literature music and the visual arts and precisely enough to examine individual works in detail Reed focuses on the essential characteristics of this style and distinguishes it from non esthetic categories of decadent artists and decadent themes Like the natural sciences and psychology the arts in the late nineteenth century reflect an interest in the process of atomization Literature and the other arts mirror this interest by developing or rather elaborating existing forms to the point of what appears to be dissolution Instead of these forms dissolving however they require their audience's participation and thus involve a new order Reed argues that this process of reordering characterizes decadent style which depends upon sensory provocation resolvable only through negation and is therefore bounded by philosophical and emotional assumptions of inevitable frustration Drawing upon the literature music and visual arts of England and Europe at the end of the nineteenth century Reed provides a widely ranging and authoritative overview of decadent style which relates such artists as Huysmans Wilde D Annunzio Moreau Bresdin Klimt Klinger Wagner and Strauss He related decadent style to Pre Raphaelite and Naturalist preoccupation with detail and to aesthetic and Symbolist fascination with sensibility and idealism Ultimately Reed argues decadent style is a late stage of Romanticism overshadowed by Symbolism but anticipating in its attempt to yoke incompatibilities and to engender a new cerebral form some of the main traits of Modernism Edmund Dulac, His Book Illustrations Ann Conolly Hughey, 1995 The Artistic Revival of the Woodcut in France 1850-1900 Jacquelyn Baas, Richard S.
