Paul Bew,2011-10-21 Charles Stewart Parnell is the most enigmatic figure in Irish history An Anglo Irish landlord from a distinguished Wicklow family he became the most unlikely leader of Irish nationalism imaginable He hated the colour green He was not a dynamic speaker He was cold and aloof and lacked the popular touch None the less from the late 1870s until his fall and death in 1891 he held the whole of Ireland spellbound He established Home Rule for Ireland previously a taboo subject in British politics at the centre of Westminster affairs and effectively created the modern Irish state in embryo His fall was as dramatic as his rise The affair with Mrs Katharine O Shea the mother of his three children destroyed him Ever since his fall and his premature death in 1891 Parnell has remained a remarkably potent symbol particularly in times of crisis and conflict in Ireland The myth has obscured the man and makes it difficult for us to see Parnell as he really was Paul Bew presents a completely original interpretation of this fascinating and enigmatic man Charles Stewart Parnell, 1846-1891
