Charles Colson Men Of Faith Series:

Billy Graham Terry Whalin, 2002 A Men of Faith biography Billy Graham is America's best known 20th century evangelist. He has preached the gospel message to more people in live audiences than anyone in history and millions more have heard him through television, radio, and film. Whether he's preaching to multitudes or counseling America's presidents, his faithfulness is recognized around the world.

Charles Colson Stella Wiseman, 1995 His spiraling success as close adviser to President Nixon was about to be blown apart by the emerging Watergate scandal. Yet as certain downfall loomed, God was at work and the scandal was the turning point in Colson's personal life. Jailed for his part in Watergate, it was from his prison cell that Colson began the work that would bring good news to prisoners everywhere.

Luis Palau W. Terry Whalin, 1996 During the past 28 years, Dr. Luis Palau has preached the Good News to more than 11 million people in 63 nations, resulting in some 600,000 decisions for Christ. Out of Palau's spiritual journey has grown a worldwide ministry that each year reaches thousands through crusades and rallies and millions more through his daily radio programs.

The Story of One Man's Journey in Faith Gene Bradley, 2003-08

William Booth David Bennett, 1986 Celebrate the life of the man who championed the cause of the poor in England and founded the Salvation Army. A Men of Faith biography.

Jim Elliot Kathleen White, 1990 Jim Elliot, a modern martyr, gained international recognition when he died with four others at the hands of Auca Indians. His story and memoirs have become a source of missionary inspiration through the writing and speaking of his wife Elisabeth. Their story is skillfully told by Kathleen White.

Ancient-Future Faith Robert E. Webber, 1999-11 In a world marked by relativism, individualism, pluralism, and the transition from a modern to a postmodern worldview, evangelical Christians must find ways to re-present the historic faith. In his provocative new work, Ancient Future Faith, Robert E. Webber contends that present-day evangelicalism is a product of modernity. Allegiance to modernity, he argues, must be relinquished to free evangelicals to become more consistently historic. Empowerment to function in our changing culture will be found by adapting the classical tradition to our postmodern time. Webber demonstrates the implications in the key areas of church, worship, spirituality, evangelism, nurture, and mission. Webber writes: "The fundamental concern of Ancient Future Faith is to find points of contact between classical Christianity and postmodern thought. Classical Christianity was shaped in a pagan and relativistic society much like our own. Classical Christianity was not an accommodation to paganism but an alternative practice of life. Christians in a postmodern world will succeed not by watering down the faith but by being a counter-cultural community that invites people to be shaped by the story of Israel and Jesus. A substantial appendix explores the development of authority in the early church, an important issue for evangelicals in a society that shares many features with the Roman world of early Christians. Students, professors, pastors, and laypeople concerned with the church's effective response to a postmodern world will benefit from this paradigmatic volume. Informative tables and extensive bibliographies enhance the book's educational value." Amazon
