Charles Herrold Inventor Of Radio Broadcasting:

Charles Herrold, Inventor of Radio Broadcasting Gordon Greb, Mike Adams, 2015-09-11 Still broadcasting today the world's first radio station was invented by Charles Herrold in 1909 in San Jose California His accomplishment was first documented in a notarized statement written by him and published in the Electro Importing Company's 1910 catalog We have given wireless phone concerts to amateur wireless men throughout the Santa Clara Valley Being the first to broadcast radio entertainment and information to a mass audience puts him at the forefront of modern day mass communication This biography of Charles Herrold focuses on how he used primitive technology to get on the air Today it is a 50 000 watt station KCBS in San Francisco The authors describe Herrold's story as one of early triumph and final failure the story of an everyman an individual who was an innovator but never received recognition for his work and as a result died penniless His most important work was done between 1912 and 1917 and following World War I he received a license and operated station KQW for several years before running out of money Herrold then worked as a radio time salesman an audiovisual technician for a high school and a janitor at a local naval facility still telling anyone who would listen to him that he was the father of radio The authors also consider some other early inventors and the directions that their work took Lee de Forest Mike Adams, 2011-10-17 The life long inventor Lee de Forest invented the three element vacuum tube used between 1906 and 1916 as a detector amplifier and oscillator of radio waves Beginning in 1918 he began to develop a light valve a device for writing and reading sound using light patterns While he received many patents for his process he was initially ignored by the film industry In order to promote and demonstrate his process he made several hundred sound short films he rented space for their showing he sold the tickets and did the publicity to gain audiences for his invention Lee de Forest officially brought sound to film in 1919 Lee De Forest King of Radio Television and Film is about both invention and early film making de Forest as the scientist and producer director and writer of the content This book tells the story of de Forest's contribution in changing the history of film through the incorporation of sound The text includes primary source historical material U S patents and richly illustrated photos of Lee de Forest's experiments Readers will greatly benefit from an understanding of the transition from silent to audio motion pictures the impact this had on the scientific community and the popular culture as well as the economics of the entertainment industry The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio Christopher H. Sterling, Cary O'Dell, 2013-05-13 The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio presents the very best biographies of the internationally acclaimed three volume Encyclopedia of Radio in a single volume It includes more than 200 biographical entries on the most important and influential American radio personalities writers producers directors newscasters and network executives With 23 new biographies and updated entries throughout this volume covers key figures from radio's past and present including Glenn Beck Jessie Blayton Fred Friendly Arthur Godfrey Bob Hope Don Imus Rush Limbaugh Ryan Seacrest Laura Schlesinger Red Skelton Nina Totenberg Walter Winchell and many more Scholarly but accessible this encyclopedia provides an unrivaled guide to the voices behind radio for students and general readers alike      The Synchronized Society Randall Patnode,2023-03-17 The Synchronized Society traces the history of the synchronous broadcast experience of the twentieth century and the transition to the asynchronous media that dominate today Broadcasting grew out of the latent desire by nineteenth century industrialists political thinkers and social reformers to tame an unruly society by controlling how people used their time The idea manifested itself in the form of the broadcast schedule a managed flow of information and entertainment that required audiences to be in a particular place usually the home at a particular time and helped to create water cooler moments as audiences reflected on their shared media texts Audiences began disconnecting from the broadcast schedule at the end of the twentieth century but promoters of social media and television services still kept audiences under control replacing the schedule with surveillance of media use Author Randall Patnode offers compelling new insights into the intermingled roles of broadcasting and industrial post industrial work and how Americans spend their time      Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling,2004-03 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio s technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined      The Rise of Radio, from Marconi Through the Golden Age Alfred Balk,2006 A sweep of radio history from its birth as Marconi s wireless telegraph through its status under deregulation this book analyzes the changing medium s social political and cultural impact It casts light on many topics including the roles of women and African Americans programming sources outside the Hollywood Broadway nexus and more      The Museum of Broadcast Communications Encyclopedia of Radio Museum of Broadcast Communications,2004 A premise of this unique encyclopedia is that radio broadcasting is so pervasive that its importance can be easily overlooked More than 600 articles provide ample illustration of the role this medium plays throughout the world From radio s invention to radio on the Internet the cross referenced and thoroughly indexed articles analyze over 100 years of topics programs issues people and places and provide leads to further reading Some 250 photographs give visual context to an often unseen world Scholars old time radio admirers and curious readers will appreciate the unparalleled comprehensiveness of this source The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004      Clyde Arbuckle's History of San José Clyde Arbuckle,1986      Journal of the Audio Engineering Society Audio Engineering Society,2005 Directory of members published as pt 2 of Apr 1954 issue      G.K.
