Golden Memories of the San Francisco Bay Area Steven Friedman, 2000 San Francisco the flamboyant and cosmopolitan city by the bay and its neighboring municipalities was born to tell stories upon stories Ranging in ages from 68 to 91 the narrators reflect the ethnic and religious diversity of a metropolis that has been a pioneer of several social political and cultural movements They also stretch across both ends of the economic spectrum A Japanese American woman describes the harsh humiliation of internment during World War II while an Irish Catholic man fondly remembers being a paperboy in the same neighborhood for ten years until he was 20 An African American woman from Marin City explains why she ll never sell the quilts she makes Another woman recalls kissing under the Golden Gate Bridge with the man who eventually became her husband The book also utilizes more than 80 photographs from the narrators and the collections of local libraries museums and historical societies to complement the poignant humorous and revealing portraits of the people and places of the San Francisco Bay Area
