pivotal role in the conservative movement Heston's political activities were as varied as they were time consuming He worked with the Kennedy Johnson Nixon Reagan and first Bush administrations He marched in support of black civil rights served as the president of the Screen Actors Guild and helped shape policy for the National Endowment for the Arts before taking on his most high profile position president of the National Rifle Association Over the course of his career Heston became disillusioned with the Democrats he formally registered with the Republican Party in the 1980s arguing that the decision was in keeping with his longtime advocacy of individual rights From My Cold Dead Hands is far more than a biography it is a chronicle of the resurgence of American conservative thought and in particular the birth of neoconservatism Heston's brand of neoconservatism differed from that of the exclusively intellectual wing and he came to represent a previously ignored segment of neoconservatives operating on the basis of more common emotionally oriented concerns The neocons brought new life to the GOP and Raymond convincingly argues that Heston revitalized conservatism in general his image of morality individualism and masculinity lent the conservative movement credibility with a larger public He effectively campaigned for conservative candidates and causes using his popularity and image to fuel and legitimize his political activities Heston's high degree of political engagement not only paved the way for many of today's Hollywood activists but also helped popularize many of the beliefs of the neoconservative movement A balanced look at Heston and his offscreen work From My Cold Dead Hands explains how this charismatic man of conviction propelled his personal beliefs into the political mainstream of America

El Cid 1961 The Agony and the Ecstasy and Planet of the Apes 1968 Given so many popular and memorable roles Heston became known across the nation for playing strong moral men who were not just fatherly role models but also voices of authority and forces for good Of course it was no coincidence that Heston played roles with these characteristics because he rejected appearing as a character who did not share his own personal professional political or religious outlook Anyone who was unaware of that would've noticed that Heston was outspoken about his beliefs and unabashedly advocated them During the 1960s he championed Democratic candidates but as he grew older he became an ideological conservative and was perhaps more associated with the Republican Party than anyone else in Hollywood Ironically Heston may be best known by today's generations for speaking in favor of conservative causes and especially his affiliation with the National Rifle Association even more than for his actual film career If so it certainly didn't bother Heston who wrote a speech titled Fighting the Culture War in America and said The Constitution was handed down to guide us by a bunch of wise old dead white guys who invented our country Now some flinch when I say that Why It's true they were white guys So were most of the guys that died in Lincoln's name opposing slavery in the 1860s So why should I be ashamed of white guys Why is Hispanic Pride or Black Pride a good thing while White Pride conjures shaven heads and white hoods Why was the Million Man March on Washington celebrated by many as progress while the Promise Keepers March on Washington was greeted with suspicion and ridicule I'll tell you why Cultural warfare Heston remained the president and face of the NRA until stepping down after being diagnosed with Alzheimer's and he died a few years later in 2008 American Legends The Life of Charlton Heston examines the life and career of one of America's most famous and infamous actors Along with pictures of important people places and events you will learn about Heston like never before in no time at all Charlton Heston Charlton Heston,1977 Beijing Diary Charlton Heston,1990 The world famous actor director tells the personal story of a remarkable theatrical and political event his 1988 production of an all Chinese version of The Cain Mutiny Court Martial in Beijing Love Alive ,1931-12-12 The Films of Charlton Heston John Williams,1977 Charlton Heston Charlton Heston,2011
