psychoanalysis gender studies anthropology and performance theory The diversity of the essays in their methodologies and objects of study none of which is privileged over any other bespeaks the various types of drama and the numerous ways we can study them The Rabelais Encyclopedia Elizabeth C. Zegura, 2004-09-30 The French humanist Rabelais ca 1483 1553

was the greatest French writer of the Renaissance and one of the most influential authors of all time His Gargantua and Pantagruel written in five books between 1532 and 1553 rivals the works of Shakespeare and Cervantes in terms of artistry complexity of ideas and expression and historical importance Rabelais is read in numerous courses in French Literature Renaissance Studies and Western Civilization and his writings continue to attract the attention of scholars and general readers alike The first work of its kind this encyclopedia is a comprehensive guide to his life and writings Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries by expert contributors These entries discuss his characters his overt and veiled references to historical and Renaissance figures and events his literary and philosophical allusions his major themes and the key events and influences that shaped his career The entries cover such topics as education religion censors and censorship humanism death and warfare Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography The Charm of Catastrophe Alice Fiola Berry, 2000 Published in two parts in 1548 and 1552 Le Quart Livre is Rabelais's last book of certain authenticity and his most difficult and mysterious work In it Pantagruel and Panurge undertake a sea voyage and a quest for the word of the Divine Bottle but the islands they visit along the way are inhabited by strange beings whose nature and physiognomy defy natural categories Expressing the elderly writer's despair at the failure of all his dreams as a young humanist the voyage traces the last phase of the heroic quest the cycle of old age and death It is a descent into the underworld but one that is undertaken hopefully for the Quart Livre continues the search for a wife and for paternity begun in the Tiers Livre Ultimately all of these strivings may be associated with the writer physician who faces misfortunes in order to cure them In the end the Quart Livre affirms the healing power of wine laughter and words

Renaissance Food from Rabelais to Shakespeare Dr Joan Fitzpatrick, 2013-04-28 Providing a unique perspective on a fascinating aspect of early modern culture this volume focuses on the role of food and diet as represented in the works of a range of European authors including Shakespeare from the late medieval period to the mid seventeenth century The volume is divided into several sections the first of which is Eating in Early Modern Europe contributors consider cultural formations and cultural contexts for early modern attitudes to food and diet moving from the more general consideration of European and English manners to the particular consideration of historical attitudes toward specific foodstuffs The second section is Early Modern Cookbooks and Recipes which takes readers into the kitchen and considers the development of the cultural artifact we now recognize as the cookbook how early modern recipes might work today and whether cookery books specifically aimed at women might have shaped domestic creativity Part Three Food and Feeding in Early Modern Literature offers analysis of the engagement with food and feeding in key literary European and English texts from the early sixteenth to the early seventeenth century François Rabelais's Quart livre Shakespeare's plays and seventeenth century dramatic prologues The essays included in this collection are international and interdisciplinary in their approach they incorporate the perspectives of historians cultural commentators and literary critics who are leaders in the field of food and diet in early modern culture The World Upside Down in 16th-Century French Literature and Visual Culture Vincent

Robert-Nicoud,2018-09-11 In The World Upside Down in 16th Century French Literature and Visual Culture Vincent Robert Nicoud offers an interdisciplinary account of the topos of the world upside down in early modern France To call something topsy turvy in the sixteenth century is to label it as abnormal The topos of the world upside down evokes a world in which everything is inside out and out of bounds fish live in trees children rule over their parents and rivers flow back to their source The world upside down proves to be key in understanding how the social political and religious turmoil of sixteenth century France was represented and conceptualised and allows us to explore the dark side of the Renaissance by unpacking one of its most prevalent metaphors The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,2003 An Early

Bourgeois Literature in Golden Age Spain Francisco J. Sánchez,2003 Tracing the beginnings of a bourgeois literature in Golden Age Spain Francisco S nchez examines works by Baltasar Graci n 1601 1658 major picaresque texts particularly Lazarillo de Tormes 1554 and Mateo Alem n s Guzm n de Alfarache 1599 1604 and contemporary writings in which political economists and jurists look at new economic and political circumstances Using the term rep blica to describe an economic sphere of social life under the constrictions of both the monarchy and the privileges of the seignorial system S nchez investigates notions of person culture and life in these texts He also analyzes the formation of a private sphere of social action and the emergence of a literary sphere to represent early bourgeois values and sensibilities S nchez argues that this literature represents culture as intellectual and verbal skills for the social and economic advancement of a Christian but secularized person Sixteenth-century French Writers Megan Conway,2006 Essays on sixteenth century French writers including philosophers historians evangelists men of science poets playwrights and storytellers that endeavors to provide the reader with the feel for a broad array of intellectual activity alive in France during this time period Discusses the Renaissance period humanist reformers Italian influences the role of church and state and the Reformation and the Catholic Counter Reformation Mannerism and Baroque in Seventeenth-century French Poetry James Crenshaw Shepard,2001 This book examines mannerism and baroque in the poetry of Tristan L Hermite a leading lyric poet of the seventeenth century After presenting a history of scholarship on both the mannerist and baroque styles James Shepard offers a definition of each as it applies to seventeenth century lyric poetry He then turns to Tristan's works examining the poems contained in the Plaintes d'Acante et autres ouvres Les Amours La Lyre and the Vers heroiques his religious poetry La Renomme and his recently discovered poems Shepard reveals Tristan's amatory poetry to be mannerist and his heroic and religious poetry to be baroque Many poems however contain elements of both styles This supports Frank J Warnke's theory that Baroque is the period style with mannerism and baroque being two aspects of the period Shepard also uncovers a baroque dompte style the toned down baroque that Helmut Hatzfeld and others argue characterized French classicism in some of Tristan s heroic and religious poetry Indiscernible Counterparts Christopher Braider,2002 Indiscernible Counterparts The Invention of the Text in French Classical Drama Reference Guide to World Literature Tom Pendergast,2003 Covers writers from the ancient Greeks to 20th century authors Includes biographical bibliographical entries on nearly 500 writers and approximately 550 entries focusing on significant works of world literature Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer s life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail Transposing Art Into Texts in French Romantic Literature Henry F. Majewski,2002 Transposing Art into Texts in French Romantic Literature At the Table Timothy J. Tomasik,Juliann M. Vitullo,2007 This volume surveys recent studies of the metaphorical and material facets of food in medieval and early modern Europe Ranging from literary historical and political analyses to archaeological and botanical ones this collection explores food as a nexus of pre modern European culture Food and feasting are understood not simply as the consumption of material goods but also as the figurative and symbolic representations of culture which Mauss has termed a total social fact To understand the myriad ways in which discourses about food and feasting are mobilized during this period is to better understand the fundamental role food and feasting played in the development of Europeans habitual patterns of behaviour and of thought French Forum ,2002 Savage Sight, Constructed Noise David LeHardy Sweet,2003 Publisher Description Metafact Lars Olav Erickson,2004 Metafact Essayistic Science in Eighteenth Century France
