

The background of the cover is a photograph of a rocket launch. A large rocket is ascending, leaving a massive, bright white and yellow plume of smoke and fire. To the right, the nose and side of a space shuttle are visible, with its external tank and solid rocket boosters. The sky is a deep blue. Overlaid on the center of the image is a graphic of a black compass. The compass is open, and its two legs are positioned to draw a circle around a small, dark globe. The globe is positioned between the two legs of the compass, and the lines of the compass extend upwards and downwards from it.

Chasing Science Frederik Pohl, 2003-12-19 Join science fiction master Frederik Pohl as he takes readers on a wonder filled non fictional journey from the ends of the earth to the edges of the universe Part memoir part travel guide and part science primer Chasing Science is Pohl s way of sharing the thrills and excitement of his life long love affair with science With the skill and storytelling zest that has made his award winning science fiction popular the world over Pohl brings to readers of Chasing Science all the excitement and fun that he s had throughout his life as he has observed first hand the process of scientific discovery From tours of museums and national laboratories to a journey into the heart of a volcano Pohl shows readers of all ages how and where they can experience the thrill of seeing various kinds of science up close and personal This book is a perfect item for visitors to any of the several hundred hands on science museums like The Exploratorium in San Francisco the Field Museum in Chicago and others across the country a complete list of which appears as an appendix

Off the Main Sequence Tom Easton, 2006-10-01 Tom Easton has served as the monthly book review columnist for Analog Science Fiction for almost three decades having contributed during that span many hundreds of columns and over a million words of penetrating criticism on the best literature that science fiction has to offer His reviews have been celebrated for their wit humor readability knowledge and incisiveness His love of literature particularly fantastic literature is everywhere evident in his essays Easton has ever been willing to cover small presses obscure authors and unusual publications being the only major critic in the field to do so on a regular basis He seems to delight in finding the rare gem among the backwaters of the publishing field A reviewer s job he says is not to judge books for the ages but to tell readers enough about a book to give them some idea of whether they would enjoy it And this he does admirably whether he s discussing the works of the great writers in the field or touching upon the least amongst them This companion volume to Periodic Stars Borgo Wildside collects another 250 of Easton s best reviews from the last fifteen years of The Reference Library No one does it better and no other guide provides such lengthy or discerning commentary on the best SF works of recent times Complete with Introduction and detailed Index

FaithQuestions - What About Religion and Science? Paul E. Stroble, 2010-09-01 This book invites us to consider ways to remain confident in our faith as we understand and appreciate the discoveries and advances of science How can Christians integrate believe or accept all the teachings of science the Bible and Christian tradition How can we believe in both the discoveries of science and the Bible Are science and religion compatible or incompatible Does the Christian understanding that God created the universe exclude the findings and discoveries of science What is the role of faith in the world of education What can we believe about intelligent design If we believe in evolution can we believe in God Does the Big Bang theory exclude God If we are Christians can we support stem cell research and cloning Can science help us understand the afterlife Does science negate or support prayer What is the difference between faith and reason Do they exclude or complement one another As Paul Stroble addresses these questions and others he helps us examine different possible ways that religion and science relate to each other and ways that science and religion provide meaning and value in our lives PAUL STROBLE is an elder of the Illinois Great Rivers Conference of The United Methodist Church He has served both as parish pastor and college instructor and currently teaches at the University of Akron where he earned an Excellence in Teaching award He is a long time writer researcher for the United Methodist curriculum FaithLink and author of numerous articles and curricular materials Among his eleven books are Paul and the Galatians and What Do Other Faiths Believe He is married to Dr Beth Stroble and they have a daughter Emily The FaithQuestions study series is designed to meet the needs of people who have questions about the Christian faith and who desire a deeper engagement with scripture and with discipleship as they explore studies of issues in theology ethics missions Bible interpretation and church history It seeks to equip a new generation of church leaders to appreciate the eternal message of the gospel and to develop the skills to articulate its relevance in our contemporary context The series would be a good choice for users who have completed Disciple this will be the ninth study in the series following What About the Rapture What Do Other Faiths Believe What Happens When We Die What About Divine Healing What About the Trinity What About Forgiveness What About the Devil What About Reading the Bible Frederik Pohl Michael R Page,2015-09-30 One of science fiction s undisputed
