Chateaubriand Charles A. Porter, 1978 Chateaubriand Charles Allan Porter, 1978 The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton, 2016-01-14 TThe Oxford Handbook to European Romanticism brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The book focuses on the cultural history of the period extending from the French Revolution to the uprisings of 1848 It begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others A second section then explores the naturally inter disciplinary quality of Romanticism exemplified by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of self understanding of the time Discourses typically advance their own claims to resume European culture collaborating with and at the same time trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featured here are history geography drama theology language philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers an original and individual interpretation of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and provocative overview of European Romanticism Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Impossible Individuality Gerald N. Izenberg, 1992-06-03 Studying major writers and philosophers Schlegel and Schleiermacher in Germany Wordsworth in England and Chateaubriand in France Gerald Izenberg shows how a combination of political social and psychological developments resulted in the modern concept of selfhood More than a study of one national culture influencing another this work goes to the heart of kindred intellectual processes in three European countries Izenberg makes two persuasive and related arguments The first is that the Romantics developed a new idea of the self as characterized by fundamentally opposing impulses a drive to assert the authority of the self and expand that authority to absorb the universe and the contradictory impulse to surrender to a greater idealized entity as the condition of the self s infinity The second argument seeks to explain these paradoxes historically showing how romantic individuality emerged as a compromise Izenberg demonstrates how the Romantics retreated in part from a preliminary radically activist ideal of autonomy they had worked out under the impact of the French Revolution They had begun by seeing the individual self as the sole source of meaning and authority but the convergence of crises in their personal lives with the crises of the revolution revealed this ideal as dangerously aggressive and self aggrandizing In reaction the Romantics shifted their absolute claims for the self to the realm of creativity and imagination and made such claims less dangerous by attributing totality to nature art lover or state which in return gave that totality back to the self Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Truman

Capote-Stanley Elkin ,2000 Narcissus and Echo Naomi Segal,1988 Narcissus and Echo is about romantic confessional fiction in which the woman dies and the man lives to tell his tale Whether femme fatale nun sister aristocrat or fallen woman she is always somehow blamed for her own destruction What motivates the man s narrative and how does the woman s voice curiously survive the text Naomi Segal brings insights from feminist and psychoanalytic theory to bear on writers such as Chateaubriand Musset Prevost and Gautier Running throughout this lively and provocative study are dichotomies between speech and sight male doubles and female mirror the narcissism of nostalgia and the paradoxes of undesign
