French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Byron and Latin Culture Peter Cochran,2014-07-18 Byron and Latin Culture consists of twenty three papers most of which were given at the 37th International Byron Conference at Valladolid Spain in July 2011 An introduction by the editor describes in detail the huge influence which the major Latin poets had on Byron his borrowings imitations parodies and echoes have never been catalogued in such detail and it becomes clear that many ideas central to Don Juan in particular derive from Ovid Virgil Petronius Martial and the other great classical writers There are substantial sections on the ways

Byron was influenced by and in turn influenced the literature and art of France Spain Italy and other nations Contributors include John Clubbe Richard Cardwell Madeleine Callaghan Alice Levine Itsuyo Higashinaka Olivier Feignier Katherine

Kernberger and Stephen Minta Comparative Romanticisms Larry H. Peer,Diane Long Hoeveler,1998 Essays on key aspects of Romanticism viewed in a wider European context The Culture of Disaster Marie-Hélène Huet,2024-05-31 From antiquity through the Enlightenment disasters were attributed to the obscure power of the stars or the vengeance of angry gods As philosophers sought to reassess the origins of natural disasters they also made it clear that humans shared responsibility for the damages caused by a violent universe This far ranging book explores the way writers thinkers and artists have responded to the increasingly political concept of disaster from the Enlightenment until today Marie H l ne Huet argues that post Enlightenment culture has been haunted by the sense of emergency that made natural catastrophes and human deeds both a collective crisis and a personal tragedy From the plague of 1720 to the cholera of 1832 from shipwrecks to film dystopias disasters raise questions about identity and memory technology control and liability In her analysis Huet considers anew the mythical figures of Medusa and Apollo theories of epidemics earthquakes political crises and films such as Blow Up and Blade Runner With its scope and precision The Culture of Disaster will appeal to a wide public interested in modern culture philosophy and intellectual history Swoon Betsy Prioleau,2013-01-28 Lose yourself Swoon has wicked fun answering that age old query What do women want Chicago Tribune Contrary to popular myth and dogma the men who consistently beguile women belie the familiar stereotypes satanic rake alpha stud slick player Mr Nice or big money mogul As

Betsy Prioleau author of Seductress points out in this surprising insightful study legendary ladies men are a different complex species altogether often without looks or money They fit no known template and possess a cache of powerful erotic secrets With wit and erudition Prioleau cuts through the cultural lore and reveals who these master lovers really are and the arts they practice to ensnare women What she discovers is revolutionary Using evidence from science popular culture fiction anthropology and history and from interviews with colorful real world ladykillers Prioleau finds that great seducers share a constellation of unusual traits While these men run the gamut they radiate joie de vivre intensity and sex appeal above all they adore women They listen praise amuse and delight and they know their way around the bedroom And they've finessed the hardest part locking in and revving desire Women never tire of these fascinators and often like Casanova's conquests remain besotted for life Finally Prioleau takes stock of the contemporary culture and asks where are the Casanovas of today After a critique of the twenty-first century sexual malaise the gulf between the sexes and women's record discontent she compellingly argues that society needs ladies men more than ever Groundbreaking and provocative Swoon is underpinned with sharp analysis brilliant research and served up with seductive verve Standard Catalog for Public Libraries, 1935
