The Renaissance courtesan in words, letters and images Eugenio Giusti, 2014-11-12T16:00:00+01:00 Although throughout history women had been confined to enclosed spaces the advent of courtly life and culture required that men and women would share and interact in public arenas like the princely courts intellectual salons or gambling houses But also in all of these public spaces behavioral rules and regulations aimed to control women s body by equating honesty with chastity In this monograph I analyze how in the XVI XVII and XVIII centuries women in general and in particular prostitutes and courtesans repeatedly challenged those rules in the attempt to affirm their individual freedom I call this behavior social amphibology as just like amphibians these women were able to cross class boundaries and thrive in different social environments My analysis has three complementary approaches First an historical approach where census documents and sumptuary laws are investigated in order to describe the ways in which the political establishment unsuccessfully attempts to enforce its rules over women s behavior Second a literary approach where works by Castiglione Aretino Bandello and Veronica Franco are analyzed in order to emphasize the terminological proximity between the legal and the literary languages and the evolution of the term courtesan with its attribute honest A third visual approach looks at prints of women s clothing made by XVI and XVII century artists The iconographic similarity of all of the images requires a set of rubrics or labels as a way to control such visual amphibology In the last segment of this monograph I apply a diachronic perspective to these visual representations as I show how contemporary art historians use the same means of categorization used in previous centuries to identify without any definite proof paintings and prints included in two recent art exhibitions The Publishers' and Stationers' Weekly Trade Circular, 1872 The Annual American Catalogue 1886-1900, 1893 An Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1904 The Etude, 1913 A monthly journal for the musician the music student and all music lovers Etude Music Magazine Theodore Presser, 1913 Includes music Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1880 The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer, 1913 The Bookseller and the Stationery
