papers in this collection go beyond the familiar tales about famous fossil hunters and focus on relatively little known episodes in the discovery and interpretation from both a scientific and an artistic point of view of dinosaurs and other inhabitants of the Mesozoic world. They cover a long time span from the beginnings of modern scientific palaeontology in the 1700s to the present and deal with many parts of the world from the Yorkshire coast to Central India from Bavaria to the Sahara. The characters in these stories include professional palaeontologists and geologists, some of them well known, others quite obscure, explorers, amateur fossil collectors and artists linked together by their interest in Mesozoic creatures. Walter Granger, 1872-1941, Paleontologist Vincent L. Morgan, Spencer G. Lucas, 2002 Dinosaur Memories Allen Debus, 2002

Dinosaur memories are hard to forget. Most who revel in the current renaissance in dinosaur science, art, fiction and movies, or who enjoy the other appealing prehistoric animals so well popularized by the media, have fond recollections of what it was like growing up dinosaur. Together with wife Diane and his father Allen G. Debus, Allen A. Debus unveils treasured dinosaur memories and stories about prehistoric animals and paleo people spanning from the cold-blooded dinosaur era to the modern wave dinosaur renaissance. Beginning with fondly recalled roadtrips to prehistoric places where T. rex still reigns, Dinosaur Memories ventures into the realm of thunder beasts and explores the rich pop cultural appeal of prehistoric animals. If you've ever collected dinosaurs, enjoyed fossil hunting or visits to see the old bones in museums, Dinosaur Memories is a book you'll still recall years from now. Thirty-five chapters are grouped into seven sections titled Roads Into Prehistory, Thunder Beasts, Dinosaur Worlds, Fantasy Dinosaurs, Fossil Trickery, Paleo people and Rustlin' up Dinos. Dinosaur Tracks and Traces David D. Gillette, Martin G. Lockley, 1989. This is the first book ever to be devoted to this subject. Dinosaurs, the Encyclopedia Donald F. Glut, 2002. Synopsis: Writer and movie director and producer Glut, who specializes in dinosaurs, continues to expand his 1997 reference on the extinct creatures by compiling new information based on recent research by paleontologists and correcting or emending old information. He intends to provide a handy reference tool for professional scientists and students as well as less technical information of interest to the more casual dinosaur enthusiast. The main section describes the dinosaurian genera, others consider systematics, doubtful taxa that have been named but not fully described or delineated and excluded genera. Annotation: 2004.
