Dionysius the Areopagite and the Neoplatonist Tradition Ms Sarah Klitenic Wear, Professor John Dillon, 2013-05-28 Dionysius the Areopagite is arguably one of the most mysterious and intriguing figures to emerge from the late antique world Writing probably around 500 CE and possibly connected with the circle of Severus of Antioch Dionysius manipulates a Platonic metaphysics to describe a hierarchical universe as with the Hellenic Platonists he arranges the celestial and material cosmos into a series of triadic strata These strata emanate from one unified being and contain beings that range from superior to inferior depending on their proximity to God Not only do all things in the hierarchy participate in God but also all things are inter connected so that the lower hierarchies fully participate in the higher ones This metaphysics lends itself to a sacramental system similar to that of the Hellenic ritual theurgy Theurgy allows humans to reach the divine by examining the divine as it exists in creation Although Dionysius metaphysics and religion are similar to that of Iamblichus and Proclus in many ways Pseudo Dionysius differs fundamentally in his use of an ecclesiastical cosmos rather than that of the Platonic Timaeon cosmos of the Hellenes This book discusses the Christian Platonist's adaptation of Hellenic metaphysics language and religious ritual While Dionysius clearly works within the Hellenic tradition he innovates to integrate Hellenic and Christian thought

The Oxford Handbook of Dionysius the Areopagite Mark Edwards, Dimitrios Pallis, Georgios Steiris, 2022 This handbook brings together forty chapters on the antecedents the content and the reception of the Dionysian corpus a body of writings falsely ascribed to Dionysius the Areopagite a convert of St Paul but actually written in around 500

A D The Works of Dionysius the Areopagite Dionysius the Areopagite, Aeterna Press, The Treatise on Divine Names was written by Dionysius at the request of Timothy and at the instigation of Hierotheus to express in a form more easily understood the more abstract Treatise of Hierotheus who was his chief instructor after St Paul Its purpose is to explain the epithets in Holy Scripture applied alike to the whole Godhead Father Son and Holy Ghost It does not pretend to describe the unrevealed God Who is beyond expression and conception and can only be known through that union with God by which we know even as we are known Holy Scripture is the sole authority beyond which we must neither think nor speak of Almighty God The Treatise being written by one of the most learned Greeks the phraseology is naturally that of Plato and Aristotle but Plato and Aristotle are not authorities here Aeterna Press      Dionysius the Areopagite: On the Divine Names and the Mystical Theology. C. conclude that the author belongs at the very earliest to the latter half of the fifth century and that in all probability he was a native of Syria His thoughts phrases and expressions show a great familiarity with the works of the neo Platonists especially with Plotinus and Proclus He is also thoroughly versed in the sacred books of the Old and New Testament and in the works of the Fathers as far as Cyril of Alexandria The works contained in this book are The Mystical Theology The Divine Names The Celestial Hierarchy The Ecclesiastical Hierarchy and ten epistles In these treatises Pseudo Dionysius develops his apophatic or negative theology which was to have an immense influence on Christian mysticism in the East and West Also included is an index and a brief biography and discussion of the writer

On the Divine Names and The Mystical Theology

Dionysius the Areopagite, Aeterna Press, At wearisome length Dionysius discusses the problem of evil and shows that nothing is inherently bad For existence is in itself good as coming ultimately from the Super Essence and all things are therefore good in so far as they exist Since evil is ultimately non existent a totally evil thing would be simply non existent and thus the evil in the world wherever it becomes complete annihilates itself and that wherein it lodges We may illustrate this thought by the nature of zero in mathematics which is non entity since added to numbers it makes no difference and yet has an annihilating force since it reduces to zero all numbers that are multiplied by it Even so evil is nothing and yet manifests itself in the annihilation of the things it qualifies Aeterna Press

Apophasis and Pseudonymity in Dionysius the Areopagite Charles M. Stang, 2012-02-09

This book examines the writings of an early sixth century Christian mystical theologian who wrote under the name of a convert of the apostle Paul Dionysius the Areopagite and argues that the pseudonym and the corresponding influence of Paul are the crucial lens through which to read this influential corpus

The Works of Dionysius the Areopagite John Parker, Now

then O Blessed One after the Theological Outlines I will pass to the interpretation of the Divine Names as best I can But let the rule of the Oracles be here also prescribed for us viz that wesh all establish the truth of the things spoken concerning God not in the persuasive words of man s wisdom but in demonstration of the Spirit moved power of the Theologians by aid of which we are brought into contact with things unutterable and unknown in a manner unutterable and unknown in proportion to the superior union of the reasoning and intuitive faculty and operation within us By no means then is it permitted to speak or even to think anything concerning the super essential and hidden Deity beyond those things divinely revealed to us in the sacred Oracles For Agnosia supra knowledge of its super essentiality above reason and mind and essence to it must we attribute the super essential science so far aspiring to the Highest as the ray of the supremely Divine Oracles imparts itself whilst we restrain ourselves in our approach to the higher glories by prudence and piety as regards things Divine For if we must place any confidence in the All Wise and most trustworthy Theology things Divine are revealed and contemplated in proportion to the capacity of each of the minds since the supremely Divine Goodness distributes Divinely its immeasurableness as that which cannot be contained with a justice which preserves those whose capacity is limited For

as things intelligible can not be comprehended and contemplated by things of sense and things uncompounded and unformed by things compounded and formed and the intangible and unshaped formlessness of things without body by those formed according to the shapes of bodies in accordance with the self same analogy of the truth the super essential Illimitability is placed above things essential and the Unity above mind above the Minds and the One above conception is inconceivable to all conceptions and the Good above word is unutterable by word Unit making one every unit and super essential essence and mind inconceivable and Word unutterable speechlessness and in conception and namelessness being after the manner of no existing being and Cause of being to all but Itself not being as beyond every essence and as It may manifest Itself properly and scientifically concerning Itself Concerning this then as has been said the super essential and hidden Deity it is not permitted to speak or even to think beyond the things divinely revealed to us in the sacred Oracles For even as Itself has taught as becomes Its goodness in the Oracles the science and contemplation of Itself in Its essential Nature is beyond the reach of all created things as towering super essentially above all And you will find many of the Theologians who have celebrated It not only as invisible and incomprehensible but also as inscrutable and untraceable since there is no trace of those who have penetrated to Its hidden infinitude The Good indeed is not entirely uncommunicated to any single created being but benignly sheds forth its super essential ray persistently fixed in Itself by illuminations analogous to each several being and elevates to Its permitted contemplation and communion and likeness those holy minds who as far as is lawful and reverent strive after It and who are neither impotently boastful towards that which is higher than the harmoniously imparted Divine manifestation nor in regard to a lower level lapse downward through their inclining to the worse but who elevate themselves determinately and unwaveringly to the ray shining upon them and by their proportioned love of permitted illuminations are elevated with a holy reverence prudently and piously as on new wings Following then these the supremely Divine standards which also govern the whole holy ranks of the super celestial orders whilst honouring the unrevealed of the Godhead which is beyond mind and matter with inscrutable and holy reverence of mind and things unutterable with a prudent silence we elevate ourselves to the glories which illuminate us in the sacred Oracles and are led by their light to the supremely Divine Hymns by which we are super mundanely enlightened and moulded to the sacred Songs of Praise so as both to see the supremely Divine illuminations given to us by them according to our capacities and to praise the good giving Source of every holy manifestation of light as Itself has taught concerning Itself in the sacred Oracles For instance that It is cause and origin and essence and life of all things and even of those who fall away from It both recalling and resurrection and of those who have lapsed to the perversion of the Divine likeness renewal and reformation of those who are tossed about in a sort of irreligious unsteadiness a religious stability of those who have continued to stand steadfastness of those who are being conducted to It a protecting Conductor of those being illuminated illumination of those being perfected source of perfection of those being deified source of deification of those being simplified simplification of those being unified unity of every origin super essentially super original origin and of the Hidden as far as is right beneficent communication and in one word the life of the living and essence of things that be of all life and essence origin and cause because Its goodness produces and sustains things that be in their being These things we have learned from the Divine Oracles and you will find all the sacred Hymnology so to speak of the Theologians arranging the Names of God with a view to make known and praise the beneficent progressions of the Godhead Hence we see in almost every theological treatise the Godhead religiously celebrated both as Monad and unity on account of the simplicity and oneness of Its supernatural indivisibility from which as an unifying power we are unified and when our divided diversities have been folded together in a manner super mundane we are collected in to a godlike unit and divinely imitated union but also as Triad on account of the tri personal manifestation of the super essential productiveness from which all paternity in heaven and on earth is and is named also as cause of things existing since all things were brought into being on account of Its creative goodness both wise and good because all things whilst preserving the properties of their own nature unimpaired are filled with every inspired harmony and holycomeliness but pre eminently as loving towards man because It truly and wholly shared in one of Its Persons subsistencies in things belonging to us recalling to Itself and replacing the human extremity out of which in a manner unutterable the simplex Jesus was composed and the Everlasting took a temporal duration and He Who is super essentially exalted above every rank throughout all nature became within our nature whilst retaining the unchangeable and unconfused stead fastness of His own properties And whatever other divinely wrought illuminations conformable to the Oracles the secret tradition of our inspired leaders bequeathed to us for our enlightenment in these also we have been initiated now indeed according to our capacity through the sacred veils of the loving kindness towards man made known in the Oracles and hierarchical traditions which envelop things intellectual in things sensible and things super essential in things that are and place form sand shapes around the formless and shapeless and multiply and fashion the super natural and formless simplicity in the variedness of the divided symbols but hen when we have become incorruptible and immortal and have reached the Christlike and most blessed repose according to the Divine saying we shall be ever with the Lord fulfilled through all pure contemplations with the visible manifestation of God covering us with glory in most brilliant splendours as the disciples in the most Divine Transfiguration and participating in His gift of spiritual light with unimpassioned and immaterial mind and even in the union beyond conception through the agnostic and most blessed efforts after rays of surpassing brilliancy in a more Divine imitation of the super celestial minds For we shall be equal to the angels as the truth of the Oracles affirms and sons of God being sons of the resurrection But now to the best of our ability we use symbols appropriate to things Divine and from these again we elevate ourselves according to our degree to the simple and unified truth of the spiritual visions and after our every conception of things godlike laying aside our mental energies we cast ourselves to the best of our ability towards the super essential ray in which all the terms of every kind of knowledge pre existed in a manner beyond expression which it is neither possible to conceive nor express nor entirely in any way to contemplate on account of Its being pre eminently above all things and super unknown and Its havingly contained within Itself super essentially the whole perfections of all kinds of essential knowledge and power and Its being firmly fixed by Its absolute power above all even the super celestial minds For if all kinds of knowledge are of things existing and are limited to things existing that beyond all essence is also elevated above all knowledge

The Philosophy of Dionysius the Areopagite Christian Schäfer, 2006-06-01 This book proposes a reading of Dionysius the Areopagite's longest and most important treatise On the Divine Names from a philosophical point of view rather than from a theological point of view which dominates the secondary literature More in particular it proposes an interpretation of the puzzling structure of the treatise which takes its starting point from earlier interpretations of medieval and modern scholars The new reading of Dionysius main text achieves more coherence than they did precisely because of the philosophical angle which is meant to serve as a complement not an alternative to theological and historical interpretations Thus the book can be read as an introduction to the philosophy of Dionysius as it shows how the author makes original moves in introducing the Christian concepts of peace and creation as philosophical concepts in a Platonic framework Letters of Dionysius the Areopagite Pseudo-Dionysius the Areopagite, 2023-11-19 In the Letters of Dionysius the Areopagite the author often referred to as Pseudo Dionysius engages in a profound exploration of the relationship between the divine and the human emphasizing the importance of hierarchy and participation in the celestial order Written in a rich mystical style these letters draw heavily from Neoplatonic philosophy while incorporating Christian theological concepts creating a unique synthesis that has influenced both medieval theology and mysticism The work is situated within a broader literary context of late antiquity offering readers profound insights into the spiritual dimensions of existence and the progression toward divine union Pseudo Dionysius possibly a late 5th or early 6th century Christian theologian was shaped by the intellectual milieu of his time which blended elements of Greek philosophy and early Christian thought His enigmatic identity often conflated with the biblical figure Dionysius the Areopagite amplifies his authority and moral weight in addressing theological issues His inclination towards profound metaphysical inquiry likely stemmed from a desire to articulate the ineffable nature of God resulting in a lifelong commitment to mystical dialectics and religious experience Readers seeking an enriched understanding of the intersection between faith and reason as well as the complexities of divine hierarchies will find the Letters of Dionysius the Areopagite to be an invaluable resource This seminal work not only invites contemplation on the nature of God but also serves as a foundational text for those interested in the tradition of Christian mysticism and theological discourse

Theophany Eric D. Perl, 2008-06-05 Situates Pseudo Dionysius the Areopagite as a Neoplatonic philosopher in the tradition of Plotinus and Proclus

Dionysius the Areopagite between Orthodoxy and Heresy Filip Ivanović, 2011-09-22 Dionysius the Areopagite between Orthodoxy and Heresy aims to explore the thought of one of the most controversial characters of Christian history Dionysius the Areopagite and put it in a correct context between pagan namely

Neoplatonic philosophy on the one side and Christian theology on the other In significant part the book examines Dionysius Neoplatonic sources but it also offers insights into the original points of his philosophy and theology thus showing how he managed to achieve a masterful integration of pagan thought and newly revealed faith The chapters of the book taken together try to offer a broad insight into the Areopagite s thought through examining not just his intellectual background and milieu but also some of the crucial features of his work such as notions of hierarchy deification apophatic and cataphatic theologies icon and others This work is of a multidisciplinary character since Dionysius thought has been studied from different points of view so the contributions range from philosophy and theology to history and art history Dionysius the Areopagite between Orthodoxy and Heresy is intended for both specialists and non specialists Apart from being a collection of specific studies it can also serve as an introduction to the Areopagite s thought and will be useful to all those interested in late antique and early Christian philosophy and theology patristics and cultural studies in general      Ecclesiastical

Hierarchy Pseudo-Dionysius the Areopagite, 2022-05-29 In Ecclesiastical Hierarchy Pseudo Dionysius the Areopagite delves into the intricate structure of the Church exploring the spiritual and hierarchical relationship between God angels and humanity Composed in the late 5th to early 6th century this seminal text combines elements of Neoplatonism with Christian theology employing a mystical literary style that invites readers to engage in profound reflection The work systematically categorizes the celestial and ecclesiastical orders presenting them as intermediaries that facilitate the ascent of the soul toward divine union thereby influencing the broader discussions of hierarchy in both ecclesiastical and philosophical contexts during the early Christian era Pseudo Dionysius whose identity possibly draws from the Athenian convert of St Paul encountered an environment marked by rich theological debate and metaphysical inquiry His writings reflect a confluence of cultural influences that shaped early Christian thought as he sought to articulate a coherent vision of how the divine interacts with the created order Deeply influenced by Platonic thought his works reveal his attempts to reconcile the transcendence of God with His immanence in the Church s life Ecclesiastical Hierarchy is a must read for anyone interested in the intersections of theology philosophy and ecclesiology It challenges readers to contemplate the mysteries of faith and the nature of spiritual ascent ultimately serving as a vital resource for scholars and laypersons alike who wish to deepen their understanding of the spiritual and organizational dimensions of Christian practice      The Mystical Theology of Dionysius the Areopagite Pseudo-Dionysius (the Areopagite.), 1923
