Diplomacy And Developing Nations Post Cold War Foreign Policy Making Structures And Processes:

Diplomacy and Developing Nations Maurice A. East, Justin Robertson, 2012-09-10 This volume explores the foreign policy environment facing developing nations and their particular foreign policy making structures and processes By defining foreign policy broadly to incorporate the activities of a range of state actors and non state actors the book broadens the range of analytical frameworks for studying foreign policy making in developing nations Thus the actions of small groups of elites international institutions and transnational networks are seen to be part of foreign policy making as well as the traditional operations of foreign ministries The volume is comprised of an extensive introduction four thematic chapters six country studies and a conclusion that ties together common themes These serve as a useful contribution to the analysis of foreign policy making in developing nations a neglected area in the comparative study of foreign policy The Diplomatic

System of the European Union Michael Smith, Stephan Keukeleire, Sophie Vanhoonacker, 2015-06-12 Over the past five years the EU has established a new system of diplomacy centred on the European External Action Service EEAS and the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy This new system reflects a process of evolution in a changing context and has been faced by major challenges since its inception This book examines the diplomatic system of the EU locating it within the broader study of diplomacy and the European integration project The volume is structured around the interrelated themes of institutional change and the evolving practices of EU diplomacy It tracks the development of the EU s system of diplomacy with particular reference to the implementation of the Lisbon Treaty the establishment of the EEAS and the emerging practices of EU strategic and structural diplomacy Bringing together contributions from leading experts in the field this book provides an original approach to the development and operation of the EU s diplomatic system This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European Union international relations European Union politics and diplomacy

Transprofessional Diplomacy Costas M. Constantinou, Noé Cornago, Fiona McConnell, 2017-01-05 Diplomacy is no longer restricted to a single vocation nor implemented exclusively through interaction amongst official representatives In exploring the challenges that these transformations produce this work surveys firstly the genealogy of diplomacy as a profession tracing how it changed from a civic duty into a vocation requiring training and the acquisition of specific knowledge and skills Secondly using the lens of the sociology of professions the development of diplomacy as a distinctive profession is examined including its importance for the consolidation of the power of modern nation states Thirdly it examines how the landscape of professional diplomacy is being diversified and we argue enriched by a series of non state actors with their corresponding professionals transforming the phenomenology of contemporary diplomacy Rather than seeing this pluralization of diplomatic actors in negative terms as the deprofessionalization of diplomacy we frame these trends as transprofessionalization that is as a productive development that reflects the expanded diplomatic space and the intensified pace of global interconnections and networks and the new possibilities they unleash for practising diplomacy in different milieus Negotiating the Free Trade Area of the Americas Z. Arashiro, 2011-05-09 The first detailed historical account of the Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA negotiations this book covers the genesis of the project in the early 1990s to its demise in late 2003 It examines how the FTAA an Inter American policy idea was incompatible with the predominant ideas and beliefs of Brazilian and American decision makers as to how they could and should conduct their countries foreign trade policy in the Western Hemisphere

Global International Relations in Southeast Asia Chanintira na Thalang, Yong-Soo Eun, 2024-08-02 This edited volume explores the contours of Global International Relations IR in terms of teaching and research in Southeast Asia and China with the purpose of revealing existing and hidden pre theories conceptual frameworks and theoretical contributions to Global IR rooted in local histories contemporary experiences and indigenous thought The exploration is conducted within a context where scholars across regions are progressively taking strides to reshape IR which has long gravitated towards Western experiences thought and knowledge into a more inclusive discipline Otherwise known as the Global IR project these efforts aim not only to amplify marginalized voices and experiences but also introduce new conceptual and theoretical tools derived from a diverse range of experiences While some of these insights provide new understandings others offer useful implications that transcend national and regional boundaries fostering crossregional discussions about the diverse realities within our world An essential read for scholars and students of IR with an interest in Global IR IR theory in general and the development of IR in parts of Southeast Asia

Plural Diplomacies Noé Cornago, 2013-06-01 In Plural Diplomacies Normative Predicaments and Functional Imperatives No Cornago asserts the need to restore the long interrupted continuity between the relevance of diplomacy as raison de syst me in a world which is much more than a world of States and its unique value as a way to mediate the many alienations experienced by individuals and social groups The book contends that an incursion beyond conventional understanding of diplomatic studies into fields of knowledge such as social studies of science psychology critical sociology of law or conceptual history offers expanded potential within the field by addressing the modern complexities of global life With particular attention to the semantics of diplomacy pluralization of diplomacy diplomacy within states commodity diplomacy and finally antidiplomacy PluralDiplomacies Normative Predicaments and Functional Imperatives offers a new vision of diplomacy for the twenty first century

The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea Prontera, 2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Mediterrean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the de politicisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level Chinese Paradiplomacy at the Peripheries Yao Song, Tianyang Liu, 2023-11-03 This book explores how Chinese border provinces have become actors in international relations Through an analysis of the international actorness the inherent characteristics of a subnational entity as an international player of Yunnan and two other geographically peripheral provinces Guangdong and Guangxi the domestic economic and legislative circumstances that motivated these provinces to conduct transboundary engagements are determined The book is based on an extensive field study including interviews with those involved in the implementation of Yunnan's foreign agenda representatives from province owned enterprises universities and think tanks and officials and experts from the countries neighboring Yunnan Acknowledging the role of external geopolitics the authors analyze the efforts of these border provinces to incentivize neighboring countries to cooperate with them on areas of trade investment and nontraditional security Yao Song and Tianyang Liu also observe how border provinces have leveraged their paradiplomatic strengths to affect China's foreign relations with neighboring countries This volume will appeal to researchers academics and postgraduates in political science international relations and diplomacy as well as geography Southeast Asian politics political economy Chinese periphery diplomacy and nonfederal paradiplomacy American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Power and Politics After Financial Crises Justin Robertson, 2008 Foreign exploitation of economic crises in the developing world has been a central claim of neoliberal critics over the past decade This important and recurring international economic theme is the subject of closer scrutiny in this new collection where contributors offer competing interpretations of the interaction between international and domestic forces after crises In revisiting the aftermath of recent crises in key emerging markets the collection uncovers the extent to which foreign firms governments and institutions liberalized and penetrated these economies Chinese Journal of International Law, 2006 Globalisation and China's Diplomacy Stuart Harris, 2002 Historical Dictionary of the Non-Aligned Movement and Third World Guy Arnold, 2006-06-26 During the long period when the world was divided between East and West and the Cold War threatened to turn hot with devastating consequences the Non Aligned Movement was one of the few institutions that consistently sought other outcomes not in its own interest but that of all humanity Consisting of over 100 states that are free of any formal alliances with any major power bloc the Non Aligned Movement provides aid to those countries striving to gain independence eliminate poverty and develop their economy Just what the Non Aligned Movement and Third World sought and at times achieved is set forth in this unique reference work with its over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons organizations and conferences as well as the key issues and concepts Entries are supported by an extensive chronology a list of acronyms an introduction to the movement and a bibliography for further research
