Diplomasi Philip Dorling,Australia. Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade,1994 Diplomasi ,1994 Diplomasi ,1994 American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda,2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government s position towards Indonesia s struggle for independence Rising Power and Changing People David Lowe,Eric Meadows,2022-09-13 Beginning in 1943 44 Australia s relationship with India is its oldest continuous formal diplomatic relationship with any Asian country The early diplomatic exchanges between Australia and India have teased for their suggestions of potential unrealised for opportunities missed especially when compared with the very recent excitement about the future of Australia India relations How did Australia s representatives and their staff in New Delhi negotiate the many dimensions of Australia India relations This book brings together expert analyses of the work of the Australian High Commission its key people and the challenges they faced in New Delhi The important India Economic Strategy to 2035 report handed to the Australian Government in mid 2018 begins with the comment Timing has always been a challenge in Australia s relationship with India As the Australian Government works to implement some of the ambitious recommendations in the report this book adds to our understanding of why timing has been a challenge and how those at the coalface of the relationship have grappled with it Australia and Indonesia's struggle for independence Martin O'Hare,Anthony Reid,1995

Territorial Separatism in Global Politics Damien Kingsbury,Costas Laoutides,2015-03-05 This volume examines the various aspects of territorial separatism focusing on how and why separatist movements arise Featuring essays by leading scholars from different disciplinary perspectives the book aims to situate the question of separatism within the broader socio political context of the international system arguing that a set of historical events as well as local regional and global dynamics have converged to provide the catalysts that often trigger separatist conflicts In addition the book marks progress towards a new conceptual framework for the study of territorial separatism by linking the survival of communities in international politics with the effective control of territory and the consequent creation of new polities Separatist conflicts challenge conventional wisdom concerning conflict resolution within the context of international relations by unpacking a number of questions with regard to conflict transformation Through the use of case studies including Cyprus the Rakhine state in Myanmar the Shia separatism in Iraq the Uighurs in China and the case of East Timor the volume addresses key issues including the role of democracy international law intervention post conflict peacebuilding and the creation of new political entities The book will be of much interest to students of Intra StateConflict Conflict Resolution International Law Security Studies and International Relations Fear of Abandonment Allan Gyngell,2021-08-16 Updated edition covering Brexit Trump Xi s ambitions for China and the geopolitical implications of the COVID 19 pandemic Everything Australia wants to achieve as a country depends on its capacity to understand the world outside and to respond effectively to it In Fear of Abandonment expert and insider Allan Gyngell tells the story of how Australia has shaped the world and been shaped by it since it established an independent foreign policy during the dangerous days of 1942 Gyngell argues that the fear of being abandoned originally by Britain and later by our most powerful ally the United States has been an important driver of how Australia acts in the world Covering everything from the White Australia policy to the South China sea dispute this is a gripping and authoritative account of the way Australians and their governments have helped create the world we now inhabit in the twenty first century In revealing the history of Australian foreign affairs it lays the foundation for how it should change Today Australia confronts a more difficult set of international challenges than any we have faced since 1942 this new edition brings the story up to date Allan Gyngell is National President of the Australian Institute of International Affairs and an honorary professor at the Australian National University His long career in Australian international relations included appointments as director general of the Office of National Assessments and founding executive director of the Lowy Institute He worked as a diplomat policy officer and analyst in several government departments and as international adviser to Paul Keating He is the co author of Making Australian Foreign Policy and the author of Fear of Abandonment Designing Social Service Markets Gabrielle Meagher, Adam Stebbing, Diana Perche, 2022-09-15 Governments of both right and left have been introducing market logics and instruments into Australian social services in recent decades Their stated goals include reducing costs increasing service diversity and in some sectors empowering consumers This collection presents a set of original case studies of marketisation in social services as diverse as family day care refugee settlement employment services in remote communities disability support residential aged care housing and retirement incomes Contributors examine how governments have designed these markets how they work and their outcomes with a focus on how risks and benefits are distributed between governments providers and service users Their analyses show that inefficiency low quality services and inequitable access are typical problems Avoiding simplistic explanations that attribute these problems to either a few bad apple service providers or an amorphous neoliberalism that is the sum of all negative developments in recent years the collection demonstrates the diversity of market models and examines how specific market designs make social service provision susceptible to particular problems The evidence presented in this collection suggests that Australian governments market making policies have produced fragile and fragmented service systems in which the risks of rent seeking resource leakage and regulatory capture are high Yet the design of social service markets and their implementation are largely under political control Consequently if governments choose to work with market instruments they need to do so differently working with principles and practices that drive up both quality and equality Australia and the Postwar World Australia. Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, 1995 Reluctant Indonesians Clinton Fernandes, 2006 Surveys the rise of the West Papuan independence movement its potential to succeed and its likely impact on Australia Indonesia and the region He looks to the lessons that can be learnt from East Timor and offers tactical insights into the challenges that Australia faces as it negotiates its future in the region Insight ,1994 Bridging the Arafura Sea Idris F.
