Diplomatically Speaking:

Diplomatically Speaking Dennis J. Ignatius, Dennis Ignatius is an old friend and colleague who is an astute and articulate analyst and commentator on national affairs and foreign policy Malaysia is today facing the most serious crisis in its history Dennis is one of the brave Malaysians who is prepared to be objective in analyzing the sad state of our beloved Malaysia To paraphrase Voltaire It is dangerous to be right when the State is wrong I hope Dennis's thought provoking articles will help stimulate debate and discussion about how we can all work together for a better Malaysia Ambassador Dato Redzuan Kushairi G25 In life our biggest challenges relate to saying no to those whom we feel closest to In matters of international diplomacy the biggest challenge is speaking up for the country that you love and serve Not only has Dennis Ignatius done this excellently for our nation state but he has spoken out on many other matters of national interest transcending the priorities of the public sphere An excellent educational read KJ John Convener of National Congress on Integrity and Chairman of Board of OHMSI Dennis Ignatius dissects the Malaysian political landscape with a skeptical if emphatic gaze borne of years of experience in the Malaysian Foreign Service More than just a collection of essays this book is a historical document by a professional whose clarity of purpose is evident from the very first chapter S Thayaparan Commander RTD Royal Malaysian Navy Diplomatically Speaking L. C. Griscom, 1943 The American Line (1871-1902) William H. Flayhart, 2000 This book presents the largely unknown early history 1870-1900 of the American Steamship Company an extremely colorful and eventful time replete with disasters and triumphs Spoilsmen in a "flowery Fairyland" Leonard Hammersmith, 1998 An examination of the first 11 US ministers to Japan exploring the information expectations and values they took with them and how they shaped US diplomacy with Japan in the late 19th century It shows that the issue of trade was an ongoing 19th century problem Forging the Anglo-American Alliance Tyler R. Bamford, 2022-07-06 The joint British and US campaigns in the European theater of operations during World War II rank among the most impressive examples of coalition warfare in history In just eighteen months the US and British armies integrated their planning intelligence and command structures more thoroughly than any previous alliance Millions of British and American soldiers fighting alongside one another liberated North Africa France Italy and western Germany How did these two armies come together so quickly How did they combine their forces to a degree never before seen among the services of sovereign nations And how did they sustain their alliance in the face of severe disagreements and battlefield setbacks In Forging the Anglo American Alliance Tyler Bamford answers these questions by presenting the first history of the two armies relations from 1917 to 1941 Great Britain and the United States emerged from World War I as the strongest military powers in the world Forging the Anglo American Alliance examines why the armies of these two nations chose to view each other as their closest strategic partner instead of their greatest potential threat and illustrates the legacy that World War I had on the attitudes of the US and British armies toward one another and alliance warfare Through personal interactions and military education in the years leading up to World War II army officers shared large amounts of military intelligence and formed positive opinions of one another As the threat of Germany and Japan grew army officers were the first to anticipate the need for an alliance between their nations and to begin thinking about ways to structure their combined forces Using untapped archival sources official reports and officers personal papers Bamford presents an important and engaging new analysis of how this partnership grew out of the experiences and initiative of British and US Army officers and attachés during World War I and the two decades that followed Diplomatically Speaking (Classic Reprint) Lloyd Carpenter Griscom,2018-08-13 Excerpt from Diplomatically Speaking Towards dawn we awoke to find the three thousand ton Belgen land dancing about like a cork With every lurch our baggage skidded over the oor stopped with a thud and skidded back We braced ourselves in our bunks and waited for morning then gazed sadly at each other and decided we preferred to stay where we were The steward appeared with breakfast but we were not interested AS the hours dragged along nobody else came near us Mother was always seasick and Grandfather apparently did not miss us About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
