Direct From The Disciplines Writing Across The Curriculum Paperback:

Direct from the Disciplines Mary T. Segall, Robert Augustin Smart, 2005 In Direct from the Disciplines representatives from a broad range of disciplines at Quinnipiac University recount how they worked together to bring about a writing across the curriculum program that really works

How to Use Writing for Teaching and Learning Suzanne S. Hudd, Robert A. Smart, Andrew Delohery, J T Torres, 2025-01-09 This interdisciplinary guide encourages faculty to use both formal and informal writing to promote deeper learning and problem solving Readers will learn to apply concentric thinking a systematic set of cognitive steps to improve their course design and deepen student learning

Everyday Genres Mary Soliday, 2011-02-07 In Everyday Genres Writing Assignments across the Disciplines Mary Soliday calls on genre theory which proposes that writing cannot be separated from social situation to analyze the common assignments given to writing students in the college classroom and to investigate how new writers and expert readers respond to a variety of types of coursework in different fields This in depth study of writing pedagogy looks at many challenges facing both instructors and students in college composition classes and offers a thorough and refreshing exploration of writing experience ability and rhetorical situation Soliday provides an overview of the contemporary theory and research in Writing across the Curriculum programs focusing specifically on the implementation of the Writing Fellows Program at the City College of New York Drawing on her direct observations of colleagues and students at the school she addresses the everyday challenges that novice writers face such as developing an appropriate stance in one's writing and the intricacies of choosing and developing content The volume then goes on to address some of the most pressing questions being asked by teachers of composition To what extent can writing be separated from its situation How can rhetorical expertise be shared across fields And to what degree is writing ability local rather than general Soliday argues that while writing is closely connected to situation general rhetorical principles can still be capably applied if those situations are known The key to improving writing instruction she maintains is to construct contexts that expose writers to the social actions that genres perform for readers Supplementing the author's case study are six appendixes complete with concrete examples and helpful teaching tools to establish effective classroom practices and exercises in Writing across the Curriculum programs Packed with useful information and insight Everyday Genres is an essential volume for both students and teachers seeking to expand their understanding of the nature of writing assessments the second set discuss more formal efforts to assess WAC and a concluding essay provides a theoretical and historical look at WAC assessment After a preface The WAC Archives Revisited Toby Fulwiler and Art Young essays in the book are 1 Introduction Assumptions about Assessing WAC Programs Some Axioms Some Observations Some Context Kathleen Blake Yancey and Brian Huot 2 From Conduit to Customer The Role of WAC Faculty in WAC Assessment Barbara Walvoord 3 Documenting Excellence in Teaching and Learning in WAC Programs Joyce Kinkead 4 Contextual Evaluation in WAC Programs Theories Issues and Strategies for Teachers Cynthia L.
