

EASTERN EUROPEAN BUSINESS DIRECTORY

New publication reveals thousands of business opportunities for Westerners

Western entrepreneurs can forge ahead into the newly opened markets of Eastern Europe using the contacts provided in a new Gale directory. The Eastern European Business Directory organizes and describes more than 8,000 companies and organizations of Eastern Europe and the 9,000 products and services they provide.

The most contacts in one place

The Directory makes it easy for anyone to access large business operations in Eastern Europe, including:

- Hungarian farm cooperatives
- Romanian clothing manufacturers
- Czechoslovakian construction firms
- Polish engineers
- leather suppliers in the Soviet Union
- and thousands of other businesses

Described in thorough detail are the businesses and services of Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania, former East Germany, and the western Soviet Union.

EASTERN EUROPEAN BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Three easy ways to locate companies

For your quick reference, entries are arranged by product and/or service (subdivided by industry type and country location), geographic location (including city and country), and company name.

A typical entry provides:

- company or organization name
- address (given in the format most likely to ensure proper delivery)
- telephone numbers with international access codes
- telex and fax numbers
- contact names

- products and/or services offered
- founding date

Edited by well-respected business researcher

Frank X. Didik has compiled numerous computerized data bases including a database on corporations and company records in America, real estate ownership records, and aircraft records. He maintains one of the largest online databases of Eastern European business entities available.

A preface by the editor provides background information on each country and region featured, a list of investment incentive programs and their sponsors, and his comments on Eastern Europe's workforce and consumer goods manufacturing products and industries, and potential risks for the Western entrepreneur.

Compiled from a variety of sources

The Directory's source materials include officials in various Eastern European government offices, foreign trade offices, tin offices, privatization offices,
