Dirt Undress And Difference:

Dirt, Undress, and Difference Adeline Masquelier, 2005-12-20 A magnificent volume It offers brand new perspectives on body politics and identity or subjectivity formation in the post colonial world Dorothy Ko Barnard College While there is widespread interest in dress and hygiene as vehicles of cultural moral and political value little scholarly attention has been paid to cross cultural understandings of dirt and undress despite their equally important role in the fashioning of identity and difference The essays in this absorbing and thought provoking collection contribute new insights into the neglected topics of bodily treatments and transgressions In detailed ethnographic studies from around the world the contributors recast assumptions about filth and nakedness exploring how various forms of transgression associated with the body's surface are drawn up into relations of power and inequality They demonstrate imaginatively how body surfaces are powerfully mobilized in the making and unmaking of moral worlds

Shame, Modesty, and Honor in Islam Ayang Utriza Yakin, Adis Duderija, An Van Raemdonck, 2023-12-28 With a particular emphasis on definitions continuities and change this edited volume examines the historical role and function of haya or feelings of shame modesty and honor in Islamic theology and law and explores contemporary Muslims engagements with the concept The book explores various conceptions of haya and the practices associated with the concept in both Muslim majority and minority contexts The empirically rich contributions reveal how haya is socially constructed in varying social and cultural environments across the globe From medieval Islam to the modern day this book demonstrates the importance of haya and its temporal and spatial transformations

Analysing Society in a Global Context Anne Sophie Krossa, 2020-06-02 This book is the empirical part of a broad research project on society in a global context complementing the first theoretical book Theorizing Society in a Global Context While the theoretical book set the framework for a long overdue readdressing of the sociological core term society in a conflict theoretical perspective this second book substantiates its findings with theory driven empirical analysis Krossa investigates a variety of social exchanges between refugees and longer term residents using various qualitative methods and applies a lens of inclusion and exclusion via definitions of dirt and cleanliness to analyse the ways in which conflict prone activities to integrate take place Analysing Society in a Global Context will be of interest to students and scholars across sociology cultural studies migration studies European studies globalisation studies modern history and political science

Human Rights, Race, and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Cacee Hoyer, 2016-10-04 Africans and their descendants have long been faced with abuse of their human rights most frequently due to racism or racialized issues Consequently understanding shifting conceptualizations of race and identity is essential to understanding how people of color confronted these encounters This book addresses these issues and their connections to social justice discrimination and equality movements From colonial abuses or their legacies black people around the world have historically encountered discrimination and yet they do not experience injustice opaquely The chapters in this book explore and clarify how Africans and their descendants struggled to achieve agency despite long histories of discrimination Contributors draw upon a range of case studies related to resistance and examine these in conjunction with human rights and the concept of race to provide a thorough exploration of the diasporic experience Human Rights Race and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora will appeal to students and scholars of Ethnic and Racial Studies African History and Diaspora Studies New Books on Women and Feminism
