Dirty Washing Sylvia Kantaris,1989 Sylvia Kantaris isn't afraid to speak from the heart to take risks This selection draws on the best of her four previous volumes and includes a generous helping of new poems A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt,Alan Michael Parker,2002 Global in perspective this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors Who's Who in Twentieth Century World Poetry Alan Parker,Mark Willhardt,2005-12-05 Publicity Title Foreword by Andrew Motion Poet Laureate 900 entries by 75 international contributors all experts in their field Covers both canonical and lesser known contemporary poets Very broad range of coverage taking in poets from all over the world The only book of its kind to look at non English language poets in such detail

In Person Neil Astley,2008 Thirty poets from around the world read to you in person This is a new concept in publishing your own personal poetry festival brought into your home Each poet reads to you for about ten minutes up to half a dozen poems chosen from across the range of their work In Person is a collaboration between Bloodaxe Books and award winning film maker Pamela Robertson Pearce Her style of filming combines directness and simplicity sensitivity and warmth the perfect combination for these intimate readings It is as if the poet were sitting in the room with you reading just to you and sometimes saying a few things about the poems Apart from one recording taken from a live public performance all the films present informal one to one readings They enhance your appreciation of the poetry You hear how the poems sound you see how the poets read and present their work T S Eliot once described poetry as one person talking to another while W H Auden believed it was essential to hear poetry read aloud for no poem which when mastered is not better heard than read is good poetry In Person presents the oral art of poetry in that spirit There are four hours of readings on two DVDs pouched inside the back cover and all the poems are printed in this book In Person celebrates 30 years of poetry from a pioneering press Founded in 1978 Bloodaxe has published nearly a thousand titles by three hundred writers Until now you wouldn't be able to see or hear readings by many of Bloodaxe's international range of poets In Person makes that possible for the first time presenting readings by 30 essential voices from Britain Ireland America Spain Hungary Palestine Pakistan China New Zealand and the Caribbean Four out of the 30 short films present the poets work bilingually Menna Elfyn's reading alternates between her Welsh poems and their English translations Joan Margarit reads in Catalan in tandem with his translator Anna Crowe reading her English translations Palestinian poet Taha Muhammad Ali reads in Arabic and then re-inhabits each poem as it is read in English by his translator Peter Cole Yang Lian introduces his work in English and reads the poems in Chinese This anthology presents all their poems in both languages in a parallel text format enabling you to follow either language as the poems are read on the film All the other readings are in English only and in many varieties of English which will add greatly to your enjoyment and appreciation of the poetry not just poems read in Scottish Welsh and Irish English by Jackie Kay W N Herbert Gwyneth Lewis Brendan Kennelly and Micheal O Siadhail but also George Szirtes Hungarian inflected English Benjamin Zephaniah's melding of Jamaican and Birmingham and the Caribbean lilt of John Agard and James Berry The musical range of American voices is just as diverse ranging from urban Detroit Philip Levine to the Ozark Mountains C D Wright There's also a bonus track a short film of Bloodaxe's first poet Ken Smith made by Ivor Bowen just before Ken's untimely death

The Poetry Review, 1990

Love's Witness Jill Hollis, 1993 The work of women poets is often overlooked in anthologies and collections of love poetry are no exception This collection shows that on the subject of romantic and sexual love women can be just as eloquent as men sometimes on the same themes but often voicing different opinions and emotions men rarely if ever wax lyrical on the subject of their fragility for example

Poetry Review Stephen Phillips, Galloway Kyle, 1990 vol 1 no 2 Feb 1912 includes Prologomena by Ezra Pound

Collected Poems: New poems Alfred Noyes, 1920

Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1990

New Women Poets Carol Rumens, 1990 None of the new women poets in this anthology has yet published a book yet they include some of the most original new voices of the Nineties Most have already been widely published in magazines and some have won major literary prizes All are now at the point of producing first collections which will help set the tone of poetry in the new decade with poems that are passionate and precise subtle and skilful sardonic and streetwise acute aware or quietly moving The whole notion that women poets can be legitimately grouped in this way and that gender is almost a symbolic form of nationality owes everything to the Women's Movement and the literary revolution it created The very fact that such a book as this can be published at all proves the success of that revolution Any amassing of women's voices will amount to a fairly radical critique of current society It is up to the reader to decide that that critique is Carol Rumens The poets included are Rachel Blake Vuywelwa Carlin Liz Cashdan Janet Fisher Linda France Cynthia Fuller Elizabeth Garrett Ad le Geras Angela Greene Lavinia Greenlaw Fiona Hall Tracey Herd Jackie Kay Mimi Khalvati Gwyneth Lewis S J Litherland Christine McNeill Jill Maughan Mary O'Donnell Katrina Porteous Anne Rouse Eva Salzman Linda Saunders Christiania Whitehead Briar Wood
