Disarming The Heart Toward A Vow Of Nonviolence

Yi-Tong Ma

Disarming The Heart Toward A Vow Of Nonviolence:

Disarming the Heart John Dear, 1993 In a world of injustice poverty nuclear weapons and war what can we do to bring about peace Where do we begin John Dear proposes that a vow of nonviolence is the first step for anyone wanting to become a true peacemaker A nationally recognized peacemaker Dear calls on North American Christians to allow God to disarm our violent hearts He upholds the dream of nonviolence and makes that gospel vision practical and personal War and

Christian Conscience Fahey, Joseph J., 2014-04-10 This primer on war and the Christian conscience begins in an imaginary college classroom as students react to news that the draft has been reinstated Why cant I finish college asks one student Why do I have to go These urgent and personal questions offer the entry to a clear and comprehensive outline of the basic Christian responses to the problem of war As Fahey shows the Christian tradition has supplied a variety of answers including pacifism just war teaching the ethic of total war and the vision of a world community In the face of these different approaches how are we to decide which one is right And more basically how does one go about forming ones personal conscience For all who ponder these moral challenges whether as young people facing the question of military service or as counselors chaplains or teachers this book offers an essential and practical guide A Theory of Nonviolent Action

Stellan Vinthagen, 2015-11-15 In this ground breaking and much needed book Stellan Vinthagen provides the first major systematic attempt to develop a theory of nonviolent action since Gene Sharp s seminal The Politics of Nonviolent Action in 1973 Employing a rich collection of historical and contemporary social movements from various parts of the world as examples from the civil rights movement in America to anti Apartheid protestors in South Africa to Gandhi and his followers in India and addressing core theoretical issues concerning nonviolent action in an innovative penetrating way Vinthagen argues for a repertoire of nonviolence that combines resistance and construction Contrary to earlier research this repertoire consisting of dialogue facilitation normative regulation power breaking and utopian enactment is shown to be both multidimensional and contradictory creating difficult contradictions within nonviolence while simultaneously providing its creative and transformative force An important contribution in the field A Theory of Nonviolent Action is essential for anyone involved with nonviolent action who wants to think about what they are doing The Sound of Listening John

Dear, 2006-08-01 In 1996 Jesuit activist John Dear spent several weeks on silent retreat in Thomas Merton s hermitage on the grounds of the Abbey of Gethsemani near Louisville Kentucky His journal from those days of silence and solitude invites us into Merton s own spirit of peace The Sound of Listening takes us into both the journey of John Dear and Thomas Merton and our own journey to peace and new life As we enter these days of peace we pray with John Dear the peace prayer of St Francis and join our voice to his Updated Version of the Apostles Creed Together we emerge ready for the struggle for justice renewed for the journey of nonviolence and enlightened to speak the good news of peace to a wartorn world Peace Behind Bars John Dear, 1995-09 This journal taken when John Dear was in jail for eight months after a disarmament action allows you to enter into the world of prisoners and a committed peacemaker A Persistent Peace John Dear,2010-06 John Dear SJ believes that social activism and faith are inseparable Acting in the name of the nonviolent Jesus Dear has been arrested more than seventy five times has spent more than a year of his life in jail and has been mocked by armed U S soldiers standing outside the doors to his New Mexico parish A Persistent Peace John Dear s autobiography invites readers to follow the decades long journey of social activism and spiritual growth of this nationally known peace activist and to witness his bold decisive often unpopular actions on behalf of peace From his conversion to Christianity to his calling to become a Jesuit to the extreme dangers and delights of a life dedicated to truly living out the radical forgiving love of Jesus John s incredible story of social activism will touch anyone who believes in the power of peace Cistercian Studies

Cistercians,1966 Journal of Ecumenical Studies ,1987 Engage/social Action ,1987 The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin,Francis Emmett Fitzgerald,1986 The Death Penalty Carol Wekesser,1991 Opposing viewpoints debate death penalty issues Includes critical thinking activities Journey Into Compassion James McGinnis (III),1989

Cistercian Studies Quarterly ,1995 Active Nonviolent Resistance John Okwoeze Odey,1996 AB Bookman's Weekly ,1991 Mennonite Life ,1994 Who Will Roll Away the Stone? Ched Myers,1994 The author of the critically acclaimed Binding the Strong Man exposes the social and spiritual stones that impede us in our development and growth as Christians In every age writes Myers disciples despair that the story has ended only to discover that the stone has been rolled away reopening the possibility and imperative of following the Way of Jesus As a sequel to Binding the Strong Man Who Will Roll Away the Stone brings Myers study of the gospel of Mark full circle The first book provided a compelling reading of Mark s gospel as a manual of radical discipleship in the ancient Roman empire Who Will Roll Away the Stone picks up and extends the gospel s challenge specifically to those living in the contemporary imperial context Each chapter opens with classic questions from within the gospel itself Beginning with Peter s denial of Jesus Who Will Roll Away the Stone shows how and why first world Christians politically free socially mobile and resource rich seem typically unable or unwilling to struggle for social change Myers uses three of the most troubling and problematic of recent events the Los Angeles riots the Gulf War the Columbus quincentennial to demonstrate how the subtle complexities of a culture of technological wizardry information overload and short term memory can be recognized as blocking the first step on the journey of discipleship Myers then turns to the second stage of discipleship which is conversion literally a call to change direction both as individuals and as a society He continues with a deconstruction of the modus vivendi of U S culture using experiments in other ways of living including social relocation and nonviolent politics He then moves into the third stage of the call to discipleship to reconstruct the church and the world through positive action building solidarity with one another and with the poor accepting and celebrating diversity and its gifts and reclaiming the discourse of the reign of God from those who use it to defend the status quo Mother Jones ,1994 Nigeria, Search for Peace and Social Justice John Okwoeze Odey,1997 SCLC ,1990
