Discipleship And Imagination Christian Tradition And Truth:

Discipleship and Imagination David Brown, 2004 In this book David Brown considers the ways in which biblical narratives have been presented and changed over the centuries He then determines how these changes have impacted the understanding and practice of Christian discipleship Discipleship and Imagination David Brown, 2000 Suitable for students of theory as well as general readers interested in the study of religion Christianity in particular this book says that Christianity ensured the continuing relevance of the gospel in changing social conditions Tradition and Imagination David Brown, 1999-11-25 Tradition and revelation are often seen as opposites tradition is viewed as being secondary and reactionary to revelation which is a one off gift from God Drawing on examples from Christian history Judaism Islam and the classical world this book challenges these definitions and presents a controversial examination of the effect history and cultural development has on religious belief its narratives and art David Brown pays close attention to the nature of the relationship between historical and imaginative truth and focuses on the way stories from the Bible have not stood still but are subject to imaginative rewriting This rewriting is explained as a natural consequence of the interaction between religion and history God speaks to humanity through the imagination and human imagination is influenced by historical context It is the imagination that ensures that religion continues to develop in new and challenging ways Brand New Church Graeme Fancourt, 2013-05-16 Brand New Church aims to make sense of what postmodern actually looks and feels like in real life and to ask what this means for the church Over the past few years Graeme Fancourt has travelled around the UK and USA consulting with a wide range of church leaders including Sue Wallace who founded Visions and Transcendence Jonny Baker a member of Grace and Roy Searle of the Northumbria Community He writes The church that I have encountered is thoughtful active and confident in the gospel Though holding many different views these leaders all appear to take seriously the need for the church genuinely to engage positively or negatively with what it perceives to be the postmodern condition The author reveals and explores the diversity of thinking found in local churches in colleges and universities and expressed in works of contemporary theology the approaches of a range of writers such as D A Carson Peter Rollins Pete Ward Tom Wright and Stanley Hauerwas are examined to stimulating effect The result is a thoroughly vibrant read which offers a broad understanding of how in these postmodern times the church might engage fruitfully in dialogue and mission for the sake of all God's people Theology, Aesthetics, and Culture Robert MacSwain, Taylor Worley, 2012-09-20 British theologian David Brown has published a series of five books on theology and the arts This volume is a collection of responses to this body of work and includes essays by prominent philosophers theologians biblical and literary scholars Together they provide a fresh treatment of theology aesthetics and culture The Moving Text Garrick V. Allen, Christopher R. Brewer, Dennis F. Kinlaw III, 2018-06-30 Drawing upon the pioneering work of the British theologian David Brown who argues for a non static moving text that reaches beyond the biblical canon this volume brings together twelve interdisciplinary essays as well as a response from Brown With essays ranging from New Testament textual criticism to the fiction of David Foster Wallace The Moving Text provides an introduction to Brown and the Bible that will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as specialists in a wide range of fields Contributions include Ian Boxall The Catholic University of America From the Magi to Pilate's Wife David Brown Tradition and the Reception of Matthew's Text Robert MacSwain The University of the South David Brown and Eleonore Stump on Biblical Interpretation Aaron Rosen Rocky Mountain College Revisions of Sacrifice Abraham in Art and Interfaith Dialogue Dennis F Kinlaw III Houston Baptist University The Forms of Faith in Contemporary American Fiction Heythrop Journal ,2004 The Art of Theology Stephan van Erp,2004 Art and theology are two different ways of making meaning Art is a matter of inspiration and intuition It needs neither standards nor guidelines It does not follow predictable patterns nor is it determined by any specific goal Theology is similar in that it generates meaning in order to understand and communicate faith It explores the continuities and discontinuities between divine and human creations through metaphors images and the play of ideas Unlike art however theology is primarily a matter of reason It follows patterns of consistency and coherence and is shaped by the will to clarify and explain Can art offer a way of understanding the nature of theology despite these differences The twentieth century Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 wrote a seven volume masterpiece on theological aesthetics He restructured theology around basic aesthetic concepts like form and beauty The present study offers a critical analysis of Balthasar's work against the background of contemporary debates on theological foundations The author approaches this task through a careful rereading of two of Balthasar's key sources Nicholas of Cusa and Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling In this way the author rediscovers hidden undercurrents in modernity from Renaissance aesthetics to German Idealism The result is a theological aesthetics rooted in tradition and capable of understanding and communicating faith in the face of present day challenges Unity and Diversity in the New Testament James D. G. Dunn,2006 A challenging textbook for level two and three New Testament scholars The new material is the author's critical refinement of all the original issues covered New Testament study the synoptic question and the origins of Christianity are all fundamental areas of study on theology undergraduate degrees today The Hermeneutics of the "Happy" Ending in Job 42:7-17 Kenneth Numfor Ngwa,2005 The hermeneutics employed in this work is partly referred to as hindsight hermeneutics and upholds the resonance and dissonance between the Epilogue of the Book of Job and the preceding sections Within the Theophany epilogue continuum rebuke and approval retribution and its suspension divine transcendence and accessibility are all held together The dramatically discordant traditions in the preceding section are not interpreted as competing alternatives but as complementary possibilities for understanding the nature of the divine human relationship and responding to the threat and reality of chaos and suffering Salvation in Celluloid Robert Pope,2007-10 Much work in the field of theology and film lacks a really theological focus This book suggests a methodology based on the recognition of the imagination as the fundamental category in producing and interpreting film The argument is presented that the imagination holds theological significance when it is conceived of in certain ways As a result the book adopts the paradigmatic imagination an imagination which works within the paradigms of scripture or theological imagination one grounded in theological forms which is both noetic it is the image making faculty of the mind and almost ontological it is that which draws human beings into the future which they are able to construct or bring into being Once the theological paradigmatic imagination has been identified and justified its insights will be applied to Jesus films and Christ figure films asking whether or not they provide us with valid Christological understanding Films with redemptive or salvific themes are discussed as is the popularity of mythical stories and animation The final chapter will make the case that the engagement of the theological imagination with film is a method in practical theology

Elenchus of Biblica Maria J. Schoenmaeckers, Robert Althann, 2004-12-20 Le 23 novembre 1964 jour de la promulgation de Lumen Gentium la constitution dogmatique sur l'Eglise marque un evenement c'est la premiere fois dans l'histoire de l'Eglise qu'une assemblee de la Sainte Eglise s'exprime solennellement sur la vie consacree Le sixieme chapitre de la constitution traite de la signification et de l'essence de la vie religieuse la reliant au mystere de l'Eglise peuple de Dieu Ce texte conciliaire presente la vie religieuse comme un etat canonique celui du chretien qui tend dans un institut de perfection a la charite parfaite et consacre sa vie a Dieu et aux hommes ppar la profession des conseils evangeliques de chastete pauvreté et obeissance De toute evidence cette declaration doctrinale est importante pour l'Eglise et pour le developpement de la vie consacree dans l'Eglise En lisant Lumen Gentium on est assez vite frappe par le debut abrupt du sixieme chapitre sur les religieux car tous les autres chapitres s'ouvrent par une breve introduction Cependant on ne peut deracher ce chapitre de ce que a ete dit precedemment sur la vocation universelle a la saintete En fait l'histoire du texte fait clairement ressortir le lien qui unit ces chapitres

Laity and Participation Thomas Hoebel, 2006 Right across denominational boundaries lay theology is dominated by negatives the laity simply defined as the non ordained the alleged exclusion of the laity from full participation the sole focus on what they cannot or should not do and above all the total absence of an ecumenical lay theology In a unique approach this volume sets out to find ways of overcoming these negatives so predominant in current lay theology The author explores positions and perspectives put forward in Roman Catholic theology from Vatican II up to the present These are compared and contrasted with concepts and suggestions of present day Anglican Theology as well as with those of liberative theologies in Latin American and Asia Rethinking the content language and metaphors of lay theology in the final part of this volume the author proposes a new image for discussing the Church a model focusing on the interdependence and collaboration of all the people in the Church This is then used to sketch out the framework for a new type of lay theology Imbedded in ecclesiology in the concept of all believers together being the Church the author endeavours to suggest a lay theology that is indeed positive ecumenical and universal
